APRIL WORKER TOTAL UP

Improvement Below Normal

...Disappointing, Meany Says

Washington (AP)—The government announced Tuesday that the number of unemployed Americans decreased slightly this month to 5,120,000. The 78,000 decline was less than usual for this time of year.

★ ★ ★

It was the first time since October that the Census Bureau's numerical estimate showed a month-to-month decrease. However, a bureau spokesman said "we're not calling it a drop" because it could be accounted for by normal errors in the bureau's spot check on joblessness.

Also the April rate of unemployment—adjusted to seasonal factors— increased to 7.5% of the labor force as compared to 7% in March. The labor force, which includes those working or looking for work increases at this time of year as housewives and others seek jobs.

Not Significant

The reduction in unemployment was so slight that the announcement by Secretary of Commerce Weeks said the figure "did not change significantly" from the 5,198,000 level estimated for last month.

The Census Bureau figures on unemployment usually decrease by 300,000 to 350,000 between March and April.

More encouraging were the estimates on employment. The censustakers calculated that 62,907,000 Americans held jobs this month, up 596,000 from the March estimate of 62,311,000.

The Census Bureau spokesman said the usual spring pickup in outdoor work normally swells employment figures by about one million in April.

AFL-CIO President George Meany cited the report as proof that the recession "continues to worsen."

Meany, one of several calling for a tax reduction, said:

Tax Cut Urged

"Immediate action to improve and extend unemployment compensation and to cut taxes on low and middle income individuals is essential if America is to be put back to work."

Monthly statistics on employment and unemployment usually aren't made public for another 10 days or so. The announcement said they were put out Tuesday because they "were available at an unusually early date this month."

Most of the March-April employment increase was accounted for by stepped-up activity in farming and other outdoor work. Farm employment jumped to 5,558,000 from 5,072,000. Non-farm employment changed only slightly to 57,349,000 from 57,239,000.

The figures prompted Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) to call for more leadership by President Eisenhower to spur an upturn.

"This is still a distressing picture," Kefauver told a reporter.

Employment Here Fails To Show Hike

Lincoln's employment and unemployment situation during April failed to follow the national upturn.

Employment office preliminary reports showed continuing layoffs in industrial plants, with Elgin the leader in layoffs preliminary to its late May shutdown.

A rise in construction trade in Lincoln and across the state failed to offset industrial layoffs in the Lincoln area, and it was estimated that April totals would again show an increase in unemployment.

Other employment increases in Lincoln during April occurred in the service industries, including outdoor theaters, and in the office work field where an unfilled demand for trained secretarial help now exists.

The employment office officials estimate, however, that with the increase in high school and college graduate applicants in May and June, there will not be enough positions to fill the need.

Statewide, the picture was brightened with the increased demand for farm labor, which continues strong.

Unemployment claims in the Omaha area dropped during April and will probably decrease in Lincoln also, state officials estimate.

Lincoln's situation shows increase in new claims by skilled industrial workers due to the Elgin plant closing, but the increase is offset somewhat by the opening up of construction work and the expiration of some unemployment benefit credits by those who have been drawing jobless pay since December.

Solon Predicts:

4 Sites, 4-6 Atlases Each Near Omaha

Washington, D. C.—Three or 4 missile launching sites, each containing 4 to 6 Atlas intercontinental ballistic missiles, will be located near Offutt Air Force Base in the new Nebraska missile installation, Rep. Glenn Cunningham said.

In addition, another 15 to 20 missiles "will probably be kept at Offutt in reserve," the Second District congressman said.

Military sources had earlier indicated that some 15 missiles will be located at each of 3 or 4 launching sites.

Cunningham gave no source for his information.

In Omaha, Col. David Hammond, district engineer of the Army Corps of Engineers which will handle construction work for the installation, said he has received neither definite plans nor specific information on how many sites will be built.

Hruska Urges Mead Site Use

Washington (AP)—Sen. Hruska (R-Neb.) said Tuesday he has urged the Air Force to make use of the Mead Ordnance Depot in connection with an ICBM launching site at Offutt Air Force Base, Neb.

Hruska said Mead meets all the requirements for a launching site. He said it is government-owned, about 20 miles from Strategic Air Command headquarters at Offutt, and has adequate transportation facilities with building space.

Copilot's 'Impossible' Landing Of Crippled Jet Saves Injured Buddy

From Press Dispatches

Abilene, Tex.—A wind-blinded "back seat driver" made an "impossible" landing at Dyess Air Force Base here and saved the life of an injured crewman in a crippled B47 jet bomber.

The young Air Force co-pilot's feat was considered impossible because the rear seat has no visibility forward and is equipped with only a partial set of instruments.

1st Lt. James M. Obenauff 24, of Grayslake, Ill., made the landing with some added handcaps—the huge jet was crippled by fire and there was no canopy to protect him from the 400 m.p.h. wind and dust.

Obenauff was forced to use the copilot's controls because the front-seat ones had been damaged.

Col. Anthony J. Perra, commander of the 341st Bomb Wing at Dyess, called the action of Obenauff unbelieveable and a "real feat of airmanship and guts."

The bomber took off from Amarillo, Tex., AFB base on a routine training flight to Denver.

Its crew were Maj James M. Graves, 38, of Fort Worth, commander, Obenauff, copilot; 1st Lt. John P. Cobb, 25, Elko, Nev., navigator, and Maj. Joseph P. Maxwell, 32, Portsmouth, Va., navigation instructor.

Obenauff gave this account of the flight:

An Explosion

Fifteen minutes after takeoff when the plane was at 30,000 feet an explosion shook the jet and the right outboard engine caught fire. Maj. Graves ordered his crew to abandon ship.

Graves and Obenauff blasted off the plexiglass canopy but were unable to work the ejection mechanism on their seats.

They crawled through a passageway to the navigator's hatch in the nose and Graves parachuted from the plane, which was slewing wildly.

Obenauff found that navigator Cobb had also parachuted but that Maxwell had been blown against a bulkhead. He was unconscious and his oxygen mask was off.

Unable to get Maxwell through the escape hatch, Obenauff crawled back to the co-pilot's seat.

From that position he had no visibility and only part of the plane's instruments. With the canopy gone, wind streamed through the cockpit at 400 miles an hour. Doctors later said the windstream must have blown his eyelids back completely.

Debris was also being blasted at him from inside the plane as air rushed through the navigator's escape hatch.

Obenauff dropped the plane to 15,000 feet so he and Maxwell could get enough oxygen. With the help of CAA towers and another B47 in the area he oriented himself.

The Dyess control tower, alerted to his predicament, radioed step-by-step landing instructions and he brought the big 6-engine plane into a safe landing.

"I guess I am the only copilot in the world who has soloed a B47," quipped Obenauff.

Obenauff and Maxwell were hospitalized suffering shock, frostbite and eye injuries from the wind. Their condition was described as good.

WARMUP IS SLATED

Nebraska was to shake off winter's hangover Wednesday as temperatures were to rise into the 60 to 70 degree bracket over the state.

Clear to partly cloudy skies were to aid the warming as no precipitation was mentioned in the Wednesday forecast.

Overnight temperatures hit bottom at 20 in Sidney early Tuesday for the state's low. Lincoln's low of 30 was the only one reported in the state that did not fall into the 20s. Tuesday's high here was 55, topped only by 57 at Norfolk.

Some Nebraskans saw a rainbow circling the sun Tuesday, but were surprised as it had not rained. The U.S. Weather Bureau in Lincoln said the illusion of a rainbow, or "halo" around the sun or moon is caused by high cloud formations.

A-Blast Plan To Continue

...Say British

London (AP) — Prime Minister Macmillan said Tuesday Britain intends to explode more nuclear weapons. He brushed off suggestions the tests might jeopardize summit talks preparations.

The British hydrogen bomb exploded over the central Pacific Monday was the opener in a new test series, Macmillan told the House of Commons.

Government sources suggested earlier that the central Pacific tests may be Britain's last series if the United States agrees to pool nuclear secrets.

Macmillan did not comment on that.

Megaton

The Prime Minister said the blast was in the megaton range—equal to at least a million tons of TNT—and predicted radioactive fallout would be negligible.

Labor Party leader Hugh Gaitskell re-echoed the party demand that British tests be halted pending East-West summit talks. He said to continue them might endanger chances of a lasting agreement.

"I do not believe the holding of this test will make the slightest difference to the possibility of negotiating an agreement on a satisfactory basis with the Soviet government," Macmillan replied.

The proper method of settling the test problem, he added, is by firm agreement among the 3 nuclear powers, the United States, Russia and Britain.

Tax Talk Hiked

Prodding On Cuts Grows Louder

Washington (AP) — Tax cut talk grew louder Tuesday, but without any encouragement from the White House.

In a late tax development, the Democratic Advisory Committee called for a tax cut of more than 3 billion dollars in the lower income brackets.

This 24-member party council also asked new billions of public spending and a further lowering of interest rates.

In other developments:

1. Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the Senate Democratic leader, told a news conference the administration has been dragging its feet. He added: "If we are unable to get public works going and get them enthusiastically administered and executed, we are going to have to do something else to help the economy . . ."

'Revision'

"If we don't provide a cure to the recession in public works there is no other alternative but tax revision."

2. The Committee for Economic Development (CED), a private organization made up mostly of businessmen, said that if the economy drags in April below its March levels, an income tax cut would be indicated.

If reduction is decided on, the CED said, there should be a 20% reduction in individual rates, to create 7 billion dollars in new purchasing power.

3. Vice President T. O. Yntema of the Ford Motor Co. told a Senate-House Economic subcommittee the government should suspend its tax collections for 2 or 3 months.

Decisively

Yntema said a temporary tax cut would end the recession quickly and decisively.

4. Tax cuts were also favored by 3 economists who appeared before the same subcommittee that heard Yntema. These were Prof. William Fellner of Yale University, Prof. James Dusenberry of Harvard and Gerhard Colm of the National Planning Assn.

A Federal Reserve Board report meanwhile showed that price increases during this recession have been 3 times greater than those of the 1953-54 slump. It said also that in the 1948-49 recession there were sharp price cuts.

The board offered no direct explanation as to why prices should increase as they have in recent months.

Socialized Medicine Hot Topic With Doctors

...At State Medical Meeting

By Don Walton

That old enigma which periodically confronts the American medical profession—socialized medicine — attracted plenty of coffeeshop conversation Tuesday as the Nebraska Medical Assn., opened its 90th annual convention here.

Federal legislation which affects the profession was also the subject of a luncheon address by C. Joseph Stetler of Chicago, director of the law department of the American Medical Assn.

Some 200 Nebraska physicians were on hand for first day sessions, with a heavy schedule Wednesday and the annual banquet expected to attract something close to 600, officials said.

Dr. McFarland Speaker

Technical speeches and panel discussions are on tap Wednesday, following the second House of Delegates meeting at 8 a.m. Dr. Kenneth McFarland of Topeka, Kan., educational consultant for General Motors, will be featured speaker at the 7 p.m. banquet.

Nebraska physicians oppose the Forand (Rep. Aime J. Forand of Rhode Island) bill, President Fay Smith of Imperial told The Star.

The bill provides for federal hospital and surgical care for disabled and old age recipients.

"We believe the bill is extremely socialistic," Dr. Smith said.

On the other hand, the Keogh-Jenkins bill, which permits self-employed persons including doctors to purchase retirement programs and defers tax payment on premiums until such time as they are drawing benefits, has backing from the medical profession.

Other subjects which occupied conversation among physicians gathered here included care for the aged and the Salk polio vaccine.

Fourth Salk Shot

Delegates expressed interest in trying to work out a plan for better care of the aged via broadened voluntary insurance programs and not involving federal legislation.

The controversial fourth shot in Salk vaccination treatment was tabbed as "not of vital importance" and "probably not necessary." But physicians generally chose not to favor or oppose the fourth shot.

Salk vaccinations are effective in establishing "a high degree of immunity" in 80% to 90% of all cases, Dr. Smith noted.

At morning sessions, Dr. Alexander Marble, assistant clinical professor of medicine at Harvard Medical School, told delegates that using pills instead of insulin shots for diabetics is of value in certain cases, namely older, mild diabetes patients.

Some Not Aided

The severe or young diabetic is not effectively treated through oral drugs, Dr. Marble said.

The House of Delegates, composed of members of the state medical association elected by county units, Tuesday handed subjects under consideration to reference committees which will present reports at later sessions.

The nominating committee will present its slate of nominees for president-elect and vice president before the House Thursday morning at which time nominations will be accepted from the floor and elections will be held.

Dr. Smith serves as president until the 1959 convention.

Services Pay Raise Passes

Senate Votes 87-0 To 'Remedy Trained Personnel Shortage'

Washington (AP)—A general pay raise for the Army, Navy and Air Force was approved 87-0 by the Senate Tuesday.

With a minimum of debate, it passed a bill providing for 576 million dollars in increases over the first year of operation.

The measure now goes back to the House, which has approved increases totaling 683 million dollars. A Senate-House conference may be necessary to adjust the differences in the 2 bills.

Sen. Stennis (D-Miss), who guided the legislation on its swift passage through the Senate, said it is "aimed at providing a remedy for the alarming shortage of trained and qualified personnel in the armed forces."

Almost everyone in uniform with more than 2 years of service would get an increase of at least 6% over present base pay as a cost-of-living boost. Additional money would be offered for proficiency among enlisted men and special responsibility among officers.

Personnel in the Coast Guard, the Public Health Service and the Coast and Geodetic Survey would also benefit.

The proficiency and responsibility pay would range from $50 to $150 a month for a limited number of officers and men under the Senate version.

Retired Lists

There would also be a 6% increase for all persons on the retired lists.

All increases would become effective the month after President Eisenhower signs the legislation, possibly in June at the rate it is now moving through Congress.

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) asked Stennis whether the new pay incentives would permit abandonment of the peacetime draft, which is now sending between 10,000 and 15,000 young men into the Army each month.

"I do not think we can go that far," Stennis replied.

Stennis said that with respect to both officers and enlisted men the armed forces are barely meeting their requirements in terms of numbers and certainly falling far short in the area of quality.

"The cumulative results. . . are now being felt," he told the Senate.

"As an example, the Department of Defense testified (during hearings on the bill) that in the Strategic Air Command an average of about 6½ wings of B47 aircraft, which is about 15% of the total striking force, are grounded at all times because of insufficient maintenance resulting from the lack of trained personnel.

"Similar conditions exist throughout the armed forces."

Ike To Get Herring

London (AP)—A canning factory in Scotland announced it is sending a case of kippered herring to the White House for President Eisenhower's table.

Signatures Now Total Near 5,000

Names Added To Initiative Petitions

Initiative petitions with nearly 5,000 names for repeal of the city vehicle tax were on file Tuesday with City Clerk Theo Berg.

Petitions with 759 names were added Tuesday to bring the total to 4,903, according to the latest check by petition leaders. Petitions previously filed by Leo N. Bartunek totalled 4,144 names.

C. O. Blanchard, who filed the latest batch, said a "few more" may come in before the Council meeting next Monday.

"We have ample names to meet the charter provisions," commented Bartunek. "I don't think city officals can toss these petitions out on those grounds."

Need 2,580

The initiative petitions must contain 2,580 qualified voters to be sufficient under charter provisions applicable in this case.

The City Council has referred the petitions filed Monday to the city attorney and election commissioner for checking as to petition validity and the sufficiency of signatures.

No action has been taken on the group of petitions filed Tuesday.

City Atty. Ralph Nelson has questioned the validity of the initiative proposal for an ordinance repealing Ordinance 6700, the city vehicle tax for street improvements.

However, he has not rendered a formal opinion to the Council. A possible court test of the validity question has been indicated.

The question has not been litigated in Nebraska, according to Nelson, but there is at least one case in point from another state.

GM Ends Its Union Contract, Effective May 29

WORKERS TAKEN BY SURPRISE

Detroit (AP)—General Motors took over the driver's seat Tuesday in bargaining talks with the United Auto Workers Union.

In an unprecedented move, the company terminated its current 3-year contract with the union, effective at midnight May 29.

This took the union by surprise. It is the one that usually serves such notice. It already has notified Chrysler and Ford their contracts are to be terminated, effective June 1.

The Ford and Chrysler contracts differ slightly from GM's and termination by the company is standard procedure. These companies followed the union's notice immediately with their own.

Virtual Invitation

By calling the signals on contract termination, GM virtually invited the UAW to make the world's biggest manufacturing firm its strike target rather than putting the heat on Ford and Chrysler.

But UAW Vice President Leonard Woodcock, head of the union's GM bargaining team, made it clear the union has no intention of disclosing any plans it may have for possible GM strike action.

Woodcock told newsmen the union "will not be maneuvered into a strike, particularly at a time hand-picked by the company."

GM's bold action Tuesday followed its rejection Monday of the union's bid for a 3-month extension of the present contract until September.

Prompt Rejections

Ford and Chrysler just as emphatically rejected the same bid.

GM, Ford and Chrysler made counter proposals to extend present contracts for 2 years. These give workers built-in wage increases of at least 6 cents an hour annually and also cost-of-living allowances. The union rejected the counter proposals. The auto industry average wage is now $2.40 an hour for factory workers.

GM's notice of cancellation doesn't necessarily mean its plants will close down at the end of May.

City School Officials Note:

Some Survey Proposals Were Already Adopted

By Nancy Benjamin

A searching survey of the Lincoln Public Schools by visiting educators turned up several recommendations which have already been studied and acted upon by Lincoln administrators.

One area of agreement between the visiting survey teams and the Lincoln School Board and administrators is the need for an expanded junior high school science program.

Before the oral recommendation by the 65 visiting educators that 2 years of science be required at the junior high school level, Lincoln School Board members had approved a full 3-year science program for all 6 junior highs, to be started next fall.

Present Situation

At present, junior high students are offered only one course in science in the 7th and 8th grades, and 2 elective courses in the 9th grade.

The expanded course, outlined at a January school board meeting, will feature new courses aimed at satisfying the students' interest in the "air age."

Another recommendation the touring survey team made last Friday, came up for school board discussion last December. The visitors recommended that only teachers who majored in mathematics or science should teach those courses.

The December discussion of the problem brought out the fact that 11 of 85 high school teachers are now instructing in fields other than their major subject of training, but only 4 of these have less than 18 hours of training in their teaching subject.

All 11, it was revealed, are teaching in the sciences or mathematics subjects.

Hard-Of-Hearing

Another current topic up for consideration of the Lincoln School Board, appeared in the survey team recommendations. The educators agreed that a third teacher should be hired for special hard-of-hearing classes.

At their last meeting, board members discussed the heavy teaching load at the Prescott School facilities, and recommended that immediate steps be taken to hire at least a part-time assistant to aid the 2 teachers now handling the 17 hard-of-hearing students.

Praise for high school courses offering college credit were voiced by the educators at the completion of their week-long tour of the Lincoln schools.

The praise follows on the heels of a Lincoln administrative decision to expand the college-credit courses next fall with the ultimate goal of offering 30 credits in college subjects, which would allow Lincoln high school graduates taking all the offerings to enter the University of Nebraska with sophomore standing.

Courses Offered

Now offered are college-level courses in algebra, trigonometry and 3rd-year French, Latin, German and Spanish. To be added in Lincoln high schools next year is an accelerated 10-hour chemistry course, advanced physics, and possibly biology. In the future planning stage are more advanced math courses.

The visiting teams, under the direction of the State Department of Education, had a suggestion which might pave the way for the needed revenue which many of their recommendations would require:

Brighten up the outside of some of the older Lincoln school buildings, so that the many taxpayers will get a higher opinion of the school system as an addition to their neighborhoods rather than an "eyesore".

Direct Action?

Washington (AP) — The question whether the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) should abandon direct political action is being debated within the organization preparatory to its 11th annual convention here May 16-18.

Two co-founders of the organization, which defines itself as devoted to "liberal" causes, are leading the discussion.

Demo Candidates Optimistic

... Eight Speak At Pre-Primary Meeting Here

By Nancy Benjamin

Eight Democratic candidates for state and national office agreed on at least one point in outlining their political platforms before a Lincoln audience Tuesday—it is time for a Democratic victory in Nebraska.

In a pre-primary get-together, sponsored by the Jane Jefferson Democratic Women's Club, political aspirants from McCook, Fairbury, Odell, Omaha, Syracuse and Lincoln, attempted to win support of the 90 voters present.

Also present were a dozen Democratic candidates running for county and sanitary district office.

Seeks Open Debate

Frank Morrison of Lincoln, only Democratic candidate for U.S. Senator present, challenged his Republican opponents "to open and public debate on the real issues."

He charged that "unless we have a pickup in the economy and develop new markets at home and abroad" Nebraska will feel the real depths of recession next year "when the lack of wheat and beef steak really catch up with the producer."

Morrison listed solutions to present problems facing Nebraska and the nation as including more intensive development of foreign markets, new uses for farm products, abolishment of foreign aid by substituting international credit arrangements and international trade, income tax cuts and corresponding cutbacks in foreign aid, tax advantage extension to small business, more interest in training scientists, and a complete Missouri Basin development.

'Inadequacies' Hit

Two Democratic candidates for the First District seat in the U.S. House of Representatives, pointed to the "inadequacies" of the present Republican office holders of the state.

L. K. Cramb of Fairbury, newspaper editor, quoted William Jennings Bryan's famous "Cross of Gold" speech to stress his theory that the farm problem is the major concern of the electorate in the present election.

"The farm problem can be solved," he said, "by setting farm supports at 90% of parity, and if there is government subsidy involved, it is for the benefit of all the people."

GOP Hit

Another Democrat seeking the First District seat, Clair Callan of Odell, stated that "problems seem to be amplified when a Republican Administration is in office for only a few days."

Citing the lack of understanding by the general public of the concept of the brotherhood of man, Callan urged that "representatives of government must maintain the basic freedoms and the equal opportunity for all."

Both Democratic gubernatorial candidates — Ralph Brooks of McCook and Edward A. Dosek of Lincoln—fired blasts at the 20-year reign of Republicans in state office.

Brooks told his audience that he could not "pick a fight" with his Republican opponents because "the Republicans want what we have."

'3 Main Issues'

He listed 3 main issues which would lead to a Democratic victory this year as (1) the need to vote democratic to swing the pendulum back in its arc and restore a 2-party system to the state; (2) the need for taking the grasping hand of an outmoded, unrealistic tax system out of the pockets of property owners; and (3) the need for a sense of direction—for someone to plan, to promote, to execute and to administer the laws of the state effectively.

Dosek agreed with his Democratic opponent's preview for a party victory, but expressed disappointment at the lack of turnout at the Tuesday meeting.

He told the group that he had entered the race for governor "on a dare", explaining that while urging others to become a candidate for office on the Democratic ticket, he himself had been asked why he did not run.

Expenses Hit

He also charged that expenditures at present are out of line with tax receipts and cited the purchase recently of 2 state airplanes at the cost of $100,000. If elected, Dosek said, he would attempt to find ways to cut state expenditures.

Dr. William Jurgensen of Omaha and Frank Sorrell of Syracuse, both Democratic aspirants for lieutenant governor, also presented their views.

Jurgensen, an Omaha radiologist, told his audience that "it is time that medical men became much more interested in politics and in the individual."

He stated his medical training can be applied in the field of politics, and came out for a campaign "with a straight-forward approach, letting the chips fall where they may."

'Poor Government'

Sorrell charged that "if there is any state with a poorer government than Nebraska, I haven't read about it."

He cited the tax situation as an example and added that "if nothing else, I would like to stay in the political race to bring a better government to the people of this state."

Neil Nelson of Lincoln, candidate for state railway commissioner on the Democratic ticket, told party members that "this state will need a man with transportation experience to solve the tremendous change which will come about in the next 5 or 6 years."

He charged his Democratic opponent, J. C. McReynolds, who was not present, with "waging an armchair campaign relying on his name alone."

Pointing to his "life-long experience in the transportation field", Nelson stated that the railway commissioners needed to administer the law "with common sense and knowledge."

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Emma Eagleton, president of the women's Democratic group, and a short question session followed formal speeches.

Beaurivage Heads County Vets Council

E. J. Beaurivage was named president of the executive committee of Lancaster County Council of Veterans Affairs for the coming year at the group's annual meeting Tuesday night.

Other officers are: Ralph Tyler, vice president; Tom McManus, treasurer, and Loren Cottrell, secretary.

Members of the executive committee are: Sam Smith, William Grossman, Max Roper, Harry Ball, Don Newville, Bruce Gould, Dr. E. Glenn Callen and Nate Grossman.

Individual members of the council whose terms expire in 1960: Joseph Cariotto, Don Wood, Roy Boyeson, John Curtiss.

The council is an affiliate of Veterans Service Center, representing the Community Chest's interests in the center.

A. H. Duxbury, manager of the regional Veterans Administration office, addressed the council.

It was reported at the meeting that the Veterans Service Center, which uses both Chest and county funds, expended $27,705 from the county veterans aid fund in serving 1,309 veterans.

2 Surprise Developments In Shooting

A Monday night shooting incident resulted Tuesday in 2 unexpected developments:

—The man who allegedly fired the shot was hospitalized with a heart ailment.

—The step-father of the girl at whom the shot was fired was brought into court on 2 forgery charges.

Became Ill

Phil Stowts, 53, of Saginaw, Mo., who allegedly fired a shotgun blast in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Daniels at 844 No. 26th following an argument with his niece, Nellie Blackburn, 25, was reported in fairly good condition at a local hospital. A policeman is assigned to guard him. He became ill in jail and was transferred to the hospital.

Danisle, 49, was arraigned in County Court on charges of uttering a forged instrument and of possession of a forged instrument in connection with a $125 check he allegedly wrote May 30, 1954. The county attorney's office had reportedly been looking for him ever since. He only recently moved back to Lincoln from Kansas.

Pleads Innocent

Daniels pleaded innocent to both charges and his preliminary hearing was set for May 10. A $3,500 appearance bond was required.

Daniels' wife is the mother of Miss Blackburn, who recently came here from Missouri where she had been living with the Stowts. The argument prior to the shooting reportedly was the result of her refusal to return to Missouri.

The dress of Miss Blackburn reportedly was singed by the shotgun blast but she was not hurt. The charge hit a wall. Stowts was arrested several hours later by Lincoln police.

3 Small Children Slightly Injured

Three small children suffered minor injuries Tuesday morning when the car driven by their mother was involved in a 2-car crash at 48th and South.

Monna J. Greenstreet, 31, of 3100 Mayflower was the driver of the car in collision with a truck driven by Robert L. Houser, 23, of 2520 R, police reported. Her children, Steven, 1½, Carroll, 3, and Johnny, 5, suffered head bruises, police reports indicated.

Crane Seeks Full Custody Of Cheryl

Hollywood (AP) — Stephen Crane is going to fight for full custody of his daughter, Cheryl, now a ward of Juvenile Court as a result of her stabbing of Johnny Stompanato.

Crane's attorney, Arthur J. Crowley, said Tuesday an appeal from the ruling making the 14-year-old daughter of Crane and actress Lana Turner a ward of the court will be filed this week.

"He's going after full custody," Crowley said.

Cheryl, who killed Stompanato in her mother's bedroom during a violent argument between Lana and her lover, is now in temporary custody of Lana's mother, Mrs. Mildred Turner. A review of the child's custody is scheduled for June 26 in Juvenile Court.

Arctic Plan A Bid For Secrets–Russ

Gromyko Tags Plan 'Publicity'

Moscow (AP) — Andrei Gromyko charged President Eisenhower's proposal for international inspection of the Arctic is a bid for intelligence data on Soviet territory.

"This question of inspection is detached from any practical steps toward disarmament and is transformed into a matter of sheer publicity," the Soviet Foreign Minister told a news conference.

Gromyko's attack came at the Foreign Ministry as the U.N. Security Council in New York opened debate on the Arctic inspection plan. The United States presented this as entirely apart from the general topic of disarmament.

Gromyko told Moscow correspondents:

"One can hardly help concluding that the authors of the proposal have once again proved that their plans do not provide for serious discussions of either the problems of disarmament in general or the problem of preventing a surprise attack in particular. . .

'Self Evident'

"The value of this proposal, which would include in the area under inspection vast territories of the Soviet Union but would not include an inch of the territory of the United States proper, is self-evident."

He said the United States made the proposal because "they simply need intelligence data concerning the Soviet territory."

Gromyko dismissed as unacceptable a suggestion from Eisenhower that technical experts discuss means of reaching a disarmament agreement.

"The matter is not that technical experts sit down and talk about technical questions, but that certain broader matters, including political understanding, first be reached," he said. "We believe the submission of these technical matters to experts at this time would only distract from problems at issue."

Summit Talk

The Soviet position is that these and other things should be discussed at a summit meeting.

Gromyko reiterated the Soviet denunciation of what he called provocative actions of U.S. Air Force planes in the Arctic. Russia failed to win Security Council support on this issue last week.

"The Soviet government," he said, "is still hopeful that the U.S. government will display common sense and will halt, in the interests of peace, the unprovoked and impermissible flights of American bombers armed with hydrogen bombs in the direction of the frontiers of the Soviet Union."

Ex-Detention Home Draws Negro Interest

A Lincoln Negro told the County Board Tuesday he would be interested in purchasing the old County Detention Home at 746 Rose for an aprtment house for Negroes.

But Nepue Crosby of 938 No. 27th said he believed the 12-room brick home was worth only about $6,000 or $7,000. The Board said it had set a price of $10,000 on the home, and Nepue indicated he would not want to pay this much. The Board previously had considered renting the home to Negroes to help alleviate that group's crowded local housing situation.

Other possible uses of the now-vacant building proposed have been a foster home for delinquent youths between 10 and 16, a new headquarters for the County Welfare Department and also as an addition to the school operated by the Lancaster County Assn. for Retarded Children. The Board is expected to decide within the next few weeks to what use to put the home.

Frost Hurts Some State Fruit, Flowers

Old Jack Frost painted considerable damage on Lancaster County's fruit trees and flowers early Tuesday morning as temperatures plummeted to an unseasonal 30 degrees in downtown Lincoln, and a reported low of 27 at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

The freeze, however, inflicted no apparent damage on winter wheat, oats and alfalfa fields, according to Cyril Bish, county extension agent. Bish said that of 10 wild plums he examined, 8 of them were completely destroyed by the frost. "Blossoms that were opened were probably damaged, but those in the bud stage are undoubtedly alright," he said.

Lincoln nurserymen say, however, that backyard gardens and most flowers escaped permanent damage. Rosebushes, peonies and tulips should recover, they say, and unprotected tomato plants should be the only garden fatality.

Most gardeners have not set out or planted their more delicate vegetables and flowers, and large-scale gardeners and farmers usually plan their planting to miss any frost occurring before mid-May.

In the Nebraska City area, apple trees apparently escaped damage from 26-degree low readings, but peach, apricot and cherry trees in bloom may have been severely hurt.

Mrs. R. L. Kimmel, orchard owner, said no estimate of damage can be made until 3 or 4 days after the frost with the return of warm weather. Then damage can be estimated by cutting into the blossom bud. If the core is black, the trees will not bear fruit, she explained.

Man, 67, Fairly Good After Being Assaulted

A 67-year-old Lincoln man who police reported was assaulted Tuesday morning by a 26-year-old man was reported in fairly good condition at a local hospital.

Police said Joseph Slice of 1030 West 1st suffered facial and chest injuries when struck by the other man following an argument at the Slice home. The 26-year-old man is being held on an open charge at Police headquarters.

The Teeming City

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

One might get the idea that a resting spell for Lincoln is just not in the cards. The days preceding an election are generally somewhat turbulent as candidates try in various ways to gain the favor of voters. But the upcoming election is only a part of the picture today.

A passing controversy at the City Hall has been the purchase of new chairs for the members of the City Council. This is one of those things which is not too large in itself—the total amount of money involved is only $1,097.20—but involves a matter of principle with many people. There are, of course, those who would oppose the purchase as a non-essential item. The purchase is non-essential in that the Council meetings could have been continued without the new chairs.

An Unnecessary Purchase

The principle involved is two-fold—timing and the source of funds. In some respects, it is a lot like the Lincoln City Libraries proposing to purchase air-conditioning for the main library building. It is a purchase which was not anticipated in the 1957-58 fiscal year budget.

It is a purchase, also, that would be made out of a budget which theoretically, was as tight as the bark on a hickory tree when it was proposed in August of 1957. The logical question is, if the "tight" budget contained enough fat for this air-conditioning, how much more fat does it contain?

Regardless of what they say today, there probably is not a single member of the City Council who would have approved a nearly $1,100 appropriation in the 1957-58 fiscal year budget for new chairs for the Council chamber. Councilman Chauncey W. D. Kinsey described the purchase from the city's contingency fund as one which could not be foreseen.

At the same time, Councilman Pat Ash said "we've been looking for new chairs for eight years." Maybe what Kinsey meant was that the Council could not foresee where the money was coming from for the chairs. If he meant that the need could not be foreseen, he is either blind or deaf or both. But with either intent, his statement has him walking in quicksand.

★

The trouble with the City Council is that they botch too many things up themselves and make issues where none should exist. It was poor timing, as far as we are concerned, to buy the chairs at this time and when nothing had been placed in the budget for them.

For this, the responsibility rests with Councilman Pat Ash who has pushed for new lighting in the Council chambers, the new chairs and other improvements that have not yet been made. To Mayor Bennett Martin we are indebted for bringing the subject up a second time.

This reconsideration would not have been a mistake in itself had the Council members discussed the issue reasonably. A great deal of the discussion was apparently in a humorous vein but oddly enough, humor generally brings out the true feelings of an individual. It was not Kinsey's reasoning on this issue that would provoke people but the Council's application of this kind of reasoning and rationalization on more vital and fundamental issues.

True Feelings To The Surface

But, to end this piece in the same light vein in which the Council disposed of the chair issue, we might say that Councilman Al DuTeau has taken a lot for granted. "We could resign," DuTeau facetiously said, "but we would probably be criticized in the papers if we did that, too."

On Curbing The Court

Senator Jenner, who is displeased with the way the United States Supreme Court handled some of its cases of subversion, gained when the Senate Judiciary Committee approved two of his several measures for bringing the court to heel.

The committee gave the green light to the prosecution of subversion and Communist activity cases in state courts. The Supreme Court has held that this to be its field.

The committee also accepted a rephrasing of the Smith act which would consider qualitative subversion as a felony, that is, one would need only to advocate the overthrow of the government, not necessarily take steps to that end.

The entire effort of Senator Jenner to shackle the Supreme Court commands serious thought. It calls for an examination of the alternatives, and it reminds the public that blows struck at the court are actually blows struck at the public for it is a refuge of the citizen rather than an institution in itself.

Personal anger over the decision of the the court is not in itself cause for re-shaping the court. There hardly has been a controversial decision that has not found the loser disappointed or his side angry. That is an inherent characteristic. The lifetime record of the court has shown it to be trustworthy and a far greater refuge than the transient passions of strong feeling elements of the country.

As to the Jenner alternative of restricting subversive jurisdiction to the federal appellate courts and the state courts the plan is impractical in that federal citizenship is a national affair requiring one definition, not a variety of them.

A prudent country will reflect that angry laws and the abrogation of freedom's rights never saved a sick country and a well country is not tempted to excessive acts. In a political sense America is an unusually healthy country.

Vicious Circle

The inexorable pressure to reduce rail service in Nebraska brought two new instances this week.

The Union Pacific obtained a date for a re-hearing before the State Railway Commission in its effort to convert daily service between Genoa and Albion and Genoa and Spalding to tri-weekly service.

The Rock Island in the other instance would like to abandon 87 miles of service between Beatrice and Horton, Kansas. It is the only railroad serving most of the intermediate towns. Once a busy line with a minimum of four passenger trains a day and several freights this stretch of the Rock Island is a part and parcel of the early day development of southeastern Nebraska. It mothered a half dozen towns, nourished them to maturity and knitted them into the fabric of region's economy. Now the line dreams of a gone era.

It is a question whether the towns have much to mourn through loss of service because lack of use is the principal reason for the abandonment request. We never heard of a railroad wanting to go out of business when business was good. But it is beginning to dawn on the state's communities that railroads are principal taxpayers and abandonment of line for lack of business poses a problem of replacement taxes.

There is no answer in requiring railroads to keep trains running at a loss in order to qualify as community taxpayers. That only proliferates the losses and sharpens the problem. Nebraska must think of a better remedy than that and it is time it began.

Twenty-Million-Dollar Question

The Air Force has given Congress a question of some magnitude. The question is, shall the United States invest some $16 million to $20 million to make a landing on the moon? The answer by Congress, of course, will depend to a great extent upon the reaction of the American people.

But whatever is done, this much is certain. If a landing is made soon on the moon and by Russia, the American people will hardly be able to blame their elected public officials for the defeat. Congress could be wrong in judging the attitude of the public but it is not likely in this election-conscious year when all ears are to the ground to pick up the slightest rumblings.

There is still some debate over just what can be accomplished by a landing on the moon. The feat in itself might not mean a whole lot at this particular time but it has other aspects. Such a landing would demonstrate to the world the scientific progress of the nation which accomplished it and would indicate that the successful nation contained a tremendous potential in the field of rocket missiles.

Thus, it is not just a landing on the moon that must be considered. Congress must look, as well, at the scientific progress in the field of rockets and missiles that would be made in achieving such a goal and at the influence of such a landing upon the thinking of the rest of the world. The price of the moon trip is high but so are the stakes.

Big Figure

Reference is frequently made to the effect of a farm depression on the national economy, which is accepted or rejected less on fact than on political persuasion or prejudice.

For the purpose of debate it seldom pays to look up the facts. That generally ends the debate and leaves the principals feeling empty and unneeded. However in the case of the economic magnitude of the farmer the Department of Agriculture gave his case quite a boost recently. It came up with a thumbnail summary that may not end debate but will certainly fill any awkward gap when regular conversation lags. The speaker can wave his knife at his listeners and say without fear of contradiction that:

Agriculture buys more petroleum than any other industry . . . farmers take 6.5 million tons of steel and enough raw rubber to put tires on 6 million cars a year . . . 16% of the gross freight revenue is from agricultural products . . . agriculture uses 50 million tons of chemicals annually, and more electric power than Chicago, Detroit, Houston, Baltimore and Boston combined . . . about 20% of U.S. exports consist of farm products . . . in 1957 agriculture was a $14 billion customer for industry.

Caudle Remains Target Of GOP

WASHINGTON — At the close of the year 1957, the Justice Department issued a press release boasting of its record for prosecuting income tax fraud under Eisenhower. The record, which compared Eisenhower prosecutions with previous years, omitted one extremely interesting fact. It was:

The year 1949, when the Justice Department had a higher record for tax prosecution than any under Eisenhower, the assistant attorney general in charge of tax prosecution was T. Lamar Caudle, whom the Eisenhower administration has now prosecuted with a dogged relentlessness which gives the Caudle case all the aspects of another Dreyfuss case. Caudle convicted 849 in '49, the Eisenhower administration 581 in 1957.

The prosecution of Caudle contrasts with the brazen manner in which the Justice Department delayed for 14 months a grand jury investigating Congressman Adam Clayton Powell after he urged Negroes to vote for Ike in 1956.

This reporter happens to know something about the Caudle case. For in 1949-50, this column published a series of tax fraud exposes which led to two congressional investigations. T. Lamar Caudle, a smalltown North Carolina lawyer, did a good job of prosecuting these cases. He was a little slow at first, was subjected to all sorts of political pressure, and was eventually fired by Truman after HST found that Caudle was friendly to the man Harry had called an sob.

One case which Caudle prosecuted, and for which he in turn is now being prosecuted, was that of Irving Sachs, operator of "shoe-styles" in St. Louis. Caudle prosecuted, secured a guilty plea, and collected fines totaling $40,000.

Subsequently, however, Caudle has been relentlessly prosecuted to the point of persecution by Eisenhower's Justice Department because he did not send Sachs to jail and because he received two phone calls from the White House from Truman's secretary, Matt Connelly, one in September, 1949, suggesting a postponement because Sachs' attorney, Harry Schwimmer, had a heart attack; the other on Oct. 26, 1949, reporting that Schwimmer was in Washington and would like to see Caudle.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Justice Department, in prosecuting Caudle, has admitted he received no monetary reward in the Sachs case. He was prosecuted for "depriving the United States of his best services."

The chief charge regarding a defendant who was an epileptic and might not be able to stand the rigors of a trial.

However, it was U.S. District Judge Roy Harper, not Caudle, who had the final decision. In fining Sachs rather than putting him on probation, Judge Harper said: "This is the most complicated medical problem of any case that I have ever had before me." Pointing to the fact that Sachs had been examined by fifteen or twenty doctors, he concluded that Sachs was "in a very serious condition. I made up my mind I would fine him and not put him on probation."

Knowland Forces Show Of Hands

WASHINGTON — A very unusual prospect prevails with respect to the Douglas-Kennedy-Ives bill which has been the object of such extraordinary maneuvering in the Senate. It is that everybody stands to profit from the net results, including the public.

The bill, which calls for full disclosure of the finances of health, welfare and pension benefit plans, is long overdue. Approving it now is like voting for an early spring.

The debate has forced Labor to climb down from its no-more-legislation perch. AFL-CIO leaders are now formally pledged to cooperate with Congress on more measures to deal with other specific abuses. They have only done themselves a favor, but apparently they had to be put up against guns to perceive it.

Senator William F. Knowland, who forced the issue, must get a large measure of credit for whatever is finally achieved. Repeatedly he won ironclad commitments from his rival aspirants for the presidency on the Democrat side: Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson and Senator John F. Kennedy.

Paradoxically, he also did both various considerable favors.

☆ ☆ ☆

Labor has never cared for Johnson; now it is in his debt for holding the ramparts against a heavy fire of amendments that had not been carefully worked over in committee. The Texan even achieved the minor miracle of putting Senator Harry E. Byrd of Virginia in bed with Labor for a tiny catnap on the proposition that the Senate Labor Committee's jurisdiction should not be invaded.

Compelled for the first time in his five and a half years in the Senate to take a fighting stance which might lose him important voter support, Senator Kennedy in the floor debate had the air of a much misunderstood man. Actually he is lucky, too.

What the ambitious young Democrat is getting is a second chance to show leadership. The bulldog persistence of Knowland forced AFL-CIO President George Meany, who has also sneered at Kennedy as a false friend, to think again. Business must perceive that it will get the reforms it clamors for from such moderates as Kennedy or none at all.

It is possible, too, that Knowland helped himself among independents both by the courage he showed and by sponsoring sense-making labor moves. In the current hassle he wisely stayed away from the right-to-work issue he raised in his campaign to be governor of California.

MARQUIS CHILDS

Nixon Must Hoe His Own Row

WASHINGTON—If one thing irritates President Eisenhower more than any other in this unhappy phase of his presidency, it is the suggestion that he intends to resign before the end of his second term to make way for Vice President Richard M. Nixon. Reading this in a column recently, the President, in the words of one of his associates, blew his stack.

This inevitably has a bearing on his relationship with the vice president. The undercurrent of belief behind the reports the President will resign some time after January of next year is that the young and vigorous Nixon could supply the leadership in the White House that many, including in private some prominent Republicans, feel is so conspicuously lacking.

President Eisenhower cannot help but be aware of this feeling which is hardly calculated to endear him to the vice president. Yet shortly before Nixon went off on his goodwill mission to Latin America the two had a frank and friendly talk about the future.

☆ ☆ ☆

Referring to the column predicting he would resign in order to help nominate and re-elect Nixon to the presidency on his own, the President said with considerable warmth that he would never do such a thing short of another and crippling illness.

He made plain his deep resentment of the suggestion that he would step out for reasons of political expediency related to the future of the Republican party. Here, of course, his concept of duty—the soldier's conviction that he must stay at his post regardless of the odds—is strong.

But he talked, too, of the reasons behind his recent press conference statement that a vice president could not be given executive responsibility because the vice president must preside over the Senate and because a president and a vice president might not always find themselves in agreement on policy. The President explained that to give Nixon an important executive position would be to seem to favor him over all other candidates and make him the inevitable choice of the party for 1960.

As Eisenhower views it, this would be wrong, and wrong for several reasons. First, something might happen to eliminate an inevitable choice on whom all interest had centered. And, second, the party should demonstrate that it has a wealth of material in selecting both a presidential and a vice presidential candidate in 1960.

Nixon was in full agreement that the GOP has a number of fine potential candidates. In the executive branch of the government the list would include Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy, Secretary of the Treasury Robert Anderson, Sherman Adams, assistant to the President, and several others. It would include Senator William F. Knowland, if he wins the governorship of California, and any Republican who succeeds in ousting the Democrats in either New York or Pennsylvania would automatically go on that list.

But while he understands the reasonableness of the President's viewpoint, Nixon, the political realist, knows full well the position in which it puts him. He is part of the administration and he will be held accountable for its failures at home and abroad. At the same time he has no chance to demonstrate whatever executive talent he may possess at a time when such talents are urgently needed.

☆ ☆ ☆

A move to put him in the key post of chairman of the Operations Coordinating Board was blocked by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. Acutely aware of what happened to his uncle, Robert Lansing, when Woodrow Wilson in effect supplanted him as secretary of state by Colonel Edward House, Dulles is grimly determined that his line of authority to the President shall not be blurred.

During the next three weeks, while vital decisions are being taken—or not taken—on the recession at home and in the deteriorating situation in the Middle East and Asia, Nixon will be in South America. He will be shown in news photographs greeting Latin presidents and exuding goodwill at large and showy parties.

This contrast between the seriousness of what is happening at home and his own role Nixon is also acutely aware of. But his concern over the continuing drift has not deterred him from pushing ahead with his own plans.

While the part he will take in the campaign this fall will not be as extensive as in 1954, he expects to concentrate on key states and particularly on California, where a Republican victory is essential. He is going ahead, too, with a tentative plan to tour Western Europe and perhaps also Russia after the campaign in November and December.

He is prepared in short, to do everything he can to make his own future despite the heavy handicaps he must labor under.

Battle Cry

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Great publicity was given to the withdrawals which were supposedly enough to run the referendum to a shortage of 49. On this basis, I can prove that enough of the withdrawals were invalid, as the signers were not legal voters at the time they signed the petition. This alone should be enough proof that there was enough proper representation to put the wheel tax to a vote.

Little is heard of this great discrepancy now that it is a disadvantage to those who are depriving us of our rights. If any group can get a list of the 176 withdrawals used, I will prove this statement beyond a doubt. I would not blame the people for voting out the wheel tax because of lack of trust.

Already this program has risen from $5.5 million in 10 years to $6.5 in 11 years. As we "remembered Pearl Harbor," let us in Lincoln say: "Remember the Sewer Use Tax."

The Recession

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Vice President Nixon says that we will have to lick present business recession if we have to reduce taxes to do it. Like all others who talk about the subject, has he any assurance that the people who would get the reductions would spend that money for goods and wares? Had Congress frozen prices about three years ago, we wouldn't have a recession. People would have gone on buying when the dollar purchased more. As of now, the dollar buys less daily. What else can we expect?

United Effort

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Any city is judged in a crisis by the final acts of its people in righting wrongs committed within its jurisdiction. Equality of opportunity in social, financial, educational and governmental service for every citizen regardless of faith or race is a requisite of its charter under the laws of the Constitution of the United States. The struggle has not and never will cease, as is shown all about us.

Many adults are prejudiced against folks of different faiths and colors. Children as a general rule are friendly folks to all they meet and do not draw such narrow lines. Therefore close association in the immediate neighborhood, schools, and common walks of life holds the most favorable possibility of blending these citizens of tomorrow into a harmonious social body.

Lincoln has received its shock and what its whole citizenship shall do about it will show to the nation and world what manner of city we are. Our mayor has appointed a committee of our best citizens to formulate a plan to solve this problem. That body of citizens can accomplish very little unless all of Lincoln puts its shoulder to the wheel and boosts for a better city.

There will always be different strata of our social body according to the educational, cultural, professional, financial, and talents bequeathed by birth or acquired by ambitious effort, the latter route open to all. But within each stratum, no race or faith lines should exist. Is this grand conception so far above and beyond Lincoln that we cannot achieve it?

Welcome Mat

Scandia, Kans.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I read The Star daily and enjoy "The People Speak" column, and now would like to express a word of feeling.

I pulled up to a parking meter there and found I had only two pennies in small change so deposited them, giving me 24 minutes on the meter. I left at 10:30 a.m. and when I arrived back at my car at 10:55, a motor patrolman was copying my license number. I explained, but he had already written down the license number. Since it was my first violation in Lincoln, I will only have to mail the ticket back from my home town at no cost, but what gets me is that I have an out-of-state tag, and on my left as I parked was another car whose meter was exposed when I drove up and was still exposed as the officer was writing my "good neighbor" ticket, but he couldn't see it.

In 1954 I came to Lincoln on business and a truck threw a piece of gravel into the headlight as it passed, and I was called on that as soon as I hit O Street. After giving my credentials and destination, I traveled on, and believe it or not, they called the place I was going to find out if they knew of my arrival there. It sort of gets under one's skin to think the police are so alert on out-of-state cars, yet let Nebraska cars get by with other things.

It rather amused me to read on the envelope that was given me to mail back that "Lincoln welcomes you" and such junk. Lincoln welcomes you — providing you don't wear an out-of-state license.

Good Medicine

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Virgil Falloon's story of the new Council chairs was strictly "top drawer," as we of the truck-driving set would say. If a person could read one story a day of that type, we could soon do away with "couch attendants" (I was going to say "sighkiatrists" but I didn't know how to spell it.)

They should save Mr. Falloon's story for "posterity."

OFF THE RECORD By Ed. Reed

"Have a good trip, dear, and try to find time to write—even if it's only a check!"

Senate Said Set On Corruption Curbs

Washington (AP) — Senate Democratic leader Lyndon Johnson said he told AFL-CIO leaders the Senate is determined to pass legislation to curb corruption in labor unions.

Johnson reported to newsmen that AFL-CIO President George Meany and other federation chiefs pledged cooperation in having such laws enacted.

Meany and Walter Reuther, an AFL-CIO vice president, said later they had promised to cooperate in hearings starting Monday before a Senate Labor subcommittee headed by Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass).

Kennedy sat in on the session with the AFL-CIO chiefs.

Also, President Eisenhower backed a decision by Republican congressional leaders to try to force through broad regulatory legislation affecting labor unions.

Sen. Knowland of California, the No. 1 Senate Republican, told a news conference that at a White House meeting of GOP congressional leaders with Eisenhower and Secretary of Labor Mitchell sentiment was unanimous for such action.

In this connection, Knowland said Republicans are taking careful note of statements made by senators who voted against attaching a series of broad-scope labor amendments to a welfare-pension bill passed by the Senate by a 88-0 vote.

"We are documenting carefully the statements of senators who said they would have supported these amendments if they had had committee hearings on them or if some technical changes had been made in them," Knowland said.

Knowland indicated these statements are being saved for future reference.

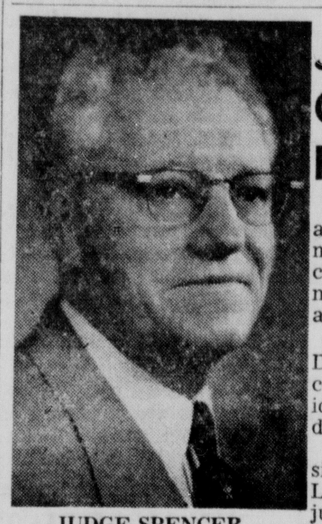

Johnson, in saying the Senate is determined to pass anti-racketeering legislation at this session, declared that "we don't want to penalize honorable labor leaders—but honorable men do not fear honorable laws against crime."

Johnson said he felt the AFL-CIO leaders with whom he had just conferred in his Capitol officer were the honorable sort.

No Legislation

Washington (AP) — Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz) predicted that Congress won't legislate this year against racketeering and other abuses uncovered in a Senate probe of labor-management relations.

"I don't see how we can take up sound legislation with even a hope or a prayer of getting it through," he told the annual meeting of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Hammarskjold Makes Dramatic Plea In U.N.

...In Behalf Of Arctic Inspection Plan After Russia's 'No'

United Naitons, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold made a dramatic bid in the Security Council Tuesday in behalf of President Eisenhower's Arctic military inspection plan. He did so in the face of bitter Soviet denunciation of the plan, and in an obvious effort to head off a veto.

Stepping out of his customarily neutral role, Hammarskjold said he wished to welcome the initiative of the United States in submitting a proposal which might break the East-West disarmament deadlock "from the angle of inspection."

The 11-nation Council was caught by surprise at the sudden move and adjourned until Friday morning.

Just before Hammarskjold took the floor, U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge expressed hope that the Soviet Union would change its mind "in the passage of a few days."

Eight nations on the Council—Britain, France, Canada, Japan, Panama, Iraq, China, and Sweden—lined up behind the U.S. proposal. Colombia was the only member who did not speak.

Lodge said he appreciated the support given the United States and joined with others in deploring the "depressing and discouraging" nature of the Soviet position.

Soviet Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev listened impassively to Hammarskjold and later had no comment. Sobolev had attacked the Eisenhower proposal as a diversionary measure and had suggested that all questions linked with disarmament be submitted to a summit conference.

—Defense Changes—

Twining And Kilday Disagree

...ON REVAMPING

Washington (AP)—Rep. Kilday (D-Tex) voiced fear Tuesday that President Eisenhower's plan to revamp the armed forces could lead to a military organization more powerful than the old German general staff.

Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the U.S. joint chiefs of staff, disagreed. Twining said there are enough safeguards in the reorganization bill to prevent the armed forces from becoming too powerful. Not that they would want to, he added.

Twining continued his lengthy appearance before the House Armed Services Committee in support of the administration's bill, which among other things would concentrate strategic planning in a joint staff, including representatives of all the military services.

Greater Danger Seen

Kilday recalled that the German general staff which wielded great power until the end of World War II was made up of Army officers only. He said the danger of military control would be even greater under the proposed U.S. setup.

Twining repeated an earlier statement that the armed forces as now organized could strike back at an enemy within 30 minutes of attack.

Some committee members promptly contended that if this is true there is no reason to streamline the military chain of command as Eisenhower has proposed.

FLANDERS WON'T RUN

...For Re-Election

Washington (AP) — Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) announced Tuesday night he will not be a candidate for re-election to the Senate.

Flanders

Flanders, 77, said he and his wife made the decision because "there are many things which are left for us to do and see in the years to come" which cannot be done while he is a senator.

He said in a statement "there is . . . no reason of health or strength for ending my service in the Senate."

". . . It is our hope that our good friends in the state will not feel critical of us for making at this time, at our age, what is essentially a selfish decision."

Cramb Group Files Election Funds Report

The Cramb for Congress Committee Tuesday filed with the Secretary of State's office a statement showing $650 collected for campaign expenses of L. K. Cramb of Fairbury, who is seeking the Democratic nomination as First District Congressman.

According to the report, Cramb contributed $500, Morris Speier contributed $100, and George Skultety, $50.

Disbursements amounted to $492.15, the statement said, and this was principally for newspaper advertising throughout the First District.

According to Nebraska law, committees receiving contributions on behalf of candidates are required to file initial reports 15 days before the primary election.

This made the deadline April 28, but Marsh said there is no penalty for not filing by the deadline.

There is a penalty, however, for not reporting at all, but Deputy Secretary of State Roland Luedtke said the law apparently is "unenforceable" as it must be proved the committee's treasurer "wilfully" did not list contributions of $25 or more.

'Hot Rod' Dental Method Explained

Omaha (AP)—Members of the Nebraska Dental Assn. Tuesday were given a demonstration talk on "Hot Rod" dentistry.

Dr. William Lefkowitz, faculty member at Ohio State University, spoke at the annual meeting of the Nebraska State Dental Assn.

"Hot rod dentistry," he explained, is the use of the new high speed drills.

"We dentsts subject our patients to relatively unpleasant experiences," said Dr. Lefkowitz.

He proved his statement by turning on a tape recorder which reproduced the sounds heard by the patient during drill work.

Dr. Lefkowitz explained that high-speed dentistry is not useful in all cases, adding that enamel finishing is one example of the need for slower speeds.

Goudge Resigns

Plainview, Neb.—Fred Goudge, the vocational agriculture instructor in the Plainview public schools for the past 5 years, has requested his release from his teaching contract in the Plainview schools in order to accept an agriculture teaching position at Akron, Ia.

Referee's Suit Answered By Defendant

A man being sued for $15,000 for an alleged assault on a referee after a basketball game declared in an answer to the charge filed Tuesday in Lancaster District Court that the referee "deliberately performed his duties in such a manner as to make it appear that he had joined the Garland High School team (which was playing Malcolm) as a sixth participant."

Earl F. McDonald of Rt. 6, Lincoln, said that the referee, F. Leon Lehr 3416 No. 67th, called fouls upon Malcolm players which did not occur. McDonald alleges that after the early-January game was over Lehr remained on the playing floor and "pushed" him and "started an altercation."

McDonald alleges that he used no more force than necessary to "repell" the "assault" by Lehr. McDonald said Lehr's officiating created "an atmosphere of heart-break, frustration and exasperation."

Lehr had charged in a suit filed Feb. 1 that McDonald assaulted him without provocation and inflicted a broken nose and facial bruises.

N.Y. Central Cuts Executive Wages

New York (AP) — New York Central Railroad will cut executive salaries and boost employe paychecks May 1.

Salary slashes of 10% will be taken by 137 executives making $15,000 or more a year. The reason: Recession and poor rail earnings.

Pay hikes of 4-cents-an-hour will be granted 54,000 union employes. The reason: A cost of living increase called for by an escalator clause in the contract with the Central and other U.S. railroads.

A spokesman said the union wage hike would add about 5 million dollars a year to the Central payroll; the executive pay cuts will save about $200,000 a year.

Big Three Say 'No' To Russians

...On Summit Proposal

Washington (AP) — Russia's proposal to add Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia to pre-summit talks was reported rejected Tuesday by U. S., British and French envoys.

Instead, informants said, the representatives of the Allied Big Three chose a less unpalatable course: Agreement to meet separately with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in Moscow, as he demanded last week.

Thus, the Big Three apparently picked what they considered the lesser of two evils. Final approval, however, depends upon London and Paris.

The agreement was signaled by French Ambassador Herve Alphand after he met with British Ambassador Sir Harold Caccia and C. Burke Elbrick, assistant U. S. secretary of state for European affairs.

3 TEACHERS, ASPHYXIATED, FOUND IN BUS

Klamath Falls, Ore. (INS) —Three Oregon Technical Institute teachers were found dead by asphyxiation Tuesday in a bus they had used to go on a fishing trip early Saturday.

The instructors were identified as John C. Roman, 47, of Astoria; George A. Harper, 39, Portland, and Roy Perkey, 49, of Eugene.

Wives of 2 of the men became alarmed when they failed to return home and asked the Klamath air search and rescue unit to search for the trio. Four planes were sent aloft early Tuesday.

State Hospital Woods' Aide Awards To 3

The Woods' Psychiatric Aide awards were presented Tuesday to 3 employes of the State Hospital at Lincoln, who were outstanding in their work at the hospital during the past year.

Recipients of the $100 awards were: Mrs. Minnie Breashears, Mrs. Macie Moore and Mr. Gerald Fisk.

The Wood's awards, presented this year for the seventh time, are given for the encouragement of improved services to patients.

Dr. Franklin L. Spradling, superintendent of the hospital, in a speech at the meeting said of the species Homo Sapien, "We are contentious —we often quarrel—we might be well accused of being our own worst enemy."

He pointed out that, "Nearly all of us are possessed of physical and mental limitations of varying degrees."

Plans To Raffle Car At NU Fete Are Canceled

Plans to raffle off a car during "Spring Day" activities at the University of Nebraska Friday have been blocked by the county attorney's office, it was reported Tuesday.

Dep. Co. Atty. Paul Douglas said he understood the car was to have been given away at an evening street dance. He noted that raffles are illegal under state law and said he had been assured the car would not be given away.

Extension Granted

Amman (AP) — Britain has agreed to let Jordan delay for 6 years payment of a $1,400,000 installment due May 1 for British military stores and installations taken over by Jordan in 1957. The due date now is May 1, 1964. The Arab kingdom, always hard pressed financially, so far has paid 3½ million dollars of the $11,900,000 debt.

Train Line Abandonment OK Sought

The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad asked authority of the State Railway Commission to abandon its line between Beatrice and Horton, Kan., in Richardson, Pawnee and Gage Counties, and in Brown and Nemaha counties, Kan.

Abandonment of the line, stretching 87.09 miles, would affect the Nebraska communities of Rockford, Virginia, Lewiston, Mayberry, Steinauer, Pawnee City, DuBois and Beatrice.

The commission set a May 20 meeting to hear oral arguments on a motion for rehearing of the Union Pacific Railroad's application to institute tri-weekly service in lieu of daily service except Sunday from Genoa to Albion, and from Genoa to Spalding.

A June 3 hearing was set in Scottsbluff on the application of the United Telephone Company of the West, Scottsbluff, to increase its rate of annual return to 3.43%.

In other business the commission:

—Granted authority to the Midwest Electric Membership Corp., Grant, and Consumers Public Power District, Columbus, to construct electric transmission lines in Keith and Scotts Bluff counties, respectively.

—Authorized the Wilcox Telephone Co., Wilcox, to adjust its service rates, effective the 1st billing date following conversion to dial operation.

—Received a request from a group of Nebraska truckers for authority to establish a new scale of rates applicable on truckload shipments weighing less than 2,000 pounds by increasing the current similar rates by 10%.

The minimum charge would range from the present $1.75 per maximum shipment up to $3.25 per shipment for distances of 400 miles and more.

However, all shipments originating or terminating in Lincoln or Omaha would be submitted to a minimum charge of 50c per shipment more than a similar shipment originating or terminating at any other Nebraska point, the commission said.

O'Rourke Appeal Brief Is Filed

A brief on behalf of John J. O'Rourke, has been filed with the State Supreme Court, appealing from a Lancaster County District Court decision involving charges of escaping from the State Penitentiary Nov. 1, 1957.

The brief said O'Rourke was sentenced by district court to 5 years in the Penitentiary on the escape charge.

The sentence was to be consecutive with his current sentence, the brief said, adding that the district court erred in refusing to call additional witnesses requested by O'Rourke.

Prostitution Banned

New Delhi (AP)—Prostitution will be legally banned throughout India Thursday. An act for the suppression of immoral traffic goes into effect that day. India's prostitutes, never registered, are unofficially estimated to total about one million.

Stanton Delaplane's POSTCARD

For two days a chill rain fell on Tokyo. But this morning when I woke up, the garden was full of warm sun. Little pools of pink cherry blossoms lay on the ground along the round stone walks. Under the little pine trees.

I pinched my fingers dreadfully trying to open the sliding panels.

In the Hotel Fukuda—ya, we have outer panels of solid wood. Then we have inner panels of glass. And inside these, opaque paper panels.

All of these slide into walls and into each other in amazing combinations. Like a Japanese box puzzle.

After I was well pinched, the maid came and slid everything together expertly. And I had breakfast with the whole wall slid away. Sitting on the edge of the garden with a warm smell of flowers and hot tea in the room.

☆ ☆ ☆

When I got off the plane the other day, I was booked into the Dai-ichi Hotel. A gloomy copy of a Western-style hotel—the way any foreign copy is gloomy.

The room was tiny and the small window looked out on a factory.

The bellboys were all stocky little girls. About 15 years old. They could hardly wrestle my baggage onto a truck. There was a sign on the desk:

"Please do not tip. A 10 per cent service charge is added to your bill."

Well, service charges are world-wide. And tips usually go on top.

I held out 200 yen to the stocky girl. She put both hands behind her back.

"Ah, so?" she said. "Ah, no."

☆ ☆ ☆

The tipping situation in Japan is amazing. In the more elegant restaurants, 10 per cent is added to the bill. In others, nothing. No tips.

The other night I left 100 yen extra on the table. The waiter ran after me into the street.

"Excuse please. You forget money."

Your room maid waits up until you come home. The other night I kept my poor girl up until 1:30. She was sleepy-eyed, but game.

When you want to make a special tip, you wrap it in an envelope. Then it is not a tip. It is a present-o. I have bought some of the wonderful Japanese writing paper. All delicately covered with flower prints.

In the envelope, I put a few hundred yen. I sealed it with gold stars. That is my apology this morning.

☆ ☆ ☆

It is not the custom either to tip taxi drivers. Nor do we tip doormen, headwaiters, hatcheck girls, barbers, shoeshine boys. (Japanese women tip the hairdresser, however.

You do not tip bartenders or bar waiters. Piano players or orchestras.

When you leave your hotel, you may put aside about five per cent of the bill and give it to the head maid. She distributes to the bath girl, maid and doorman.

It must be in an envelope. A pretty envelope. Nothing crude like holding out a couple of thousand yen.

☆ ☆ ☆

For the present-o for my maid, I thought I would buy a pretty handkerchief.

"Nevah hoppen," said the Japanese girl in the Press Club. ("Never happen" means "not so." Or "absolutely not.")

Nevah hoppen. Handkerchief mean goodbye. Sayonara."

We give handkerchiefs when we go away. So people can cry into them.

"Maybe fruit. Strawberries are in season."

"Nevah hoppen. Fruta mean somebody die."

We adjusted finally that money is an excellent present-o. But the wrapping is all important. It took me a lot of shopping to find the right envelope. I have made the present-o. But the envelope is still lying on the table.

It seems I must urge it on the girl-san three times. Twice she will refuse. The third time, she will take it. How about that?

Scot Gets Refund

Birmingham, Eng. (INS)—Peter Currie refused to accept the electricity board's explanation that its accounting machines figured bills only to the nearest penny.

He demanded, and got, refunds of 2 half-pennies the machines charged on his bills. Currie is a transplanted Scotsman.

High Court Gets Appeal Brief In 'Good Time' Case

A brief, appealing from a Lancaster County District Court decision involving interpretation of prison "good time" statutes, has been filed with the State Supreme Court.

The brief, submitted by Attorney General Clarence S. Beck on behalf of former State Reformatory Superintendent Robert E. Nichols, said John Paul Menard was not entitled to his release on certificate of the warden because the certificate was erroneous and as a result, void.

The district court, the brief said, held that Menard was entitled to an immediate release from the reformatory following his filing of a writ of habeas corpus.

Menard was released from the Reformatory Mar. 25.

Assistant Resources Chief Resigns

John C. Kelley, assistant chief of the Division of Nebraska Resources, has announced his resignation, effective May 1.

Kelley resigned in order to assist in the campaign of Donald McGinley of Ogallala, Democratic candidate for the 4th District congressman.

McGinley, 2-term senator from Ogallala, is unopposed for his party's nomination in the primary election.

Kelley, 31, joined the Resources Division a year ago. His successor has not been named.

"It is a real privilege to have the opportunity to work with a candidate of the caliber of Sen. McGinley," Kelley said.

"I sincerely regret leaving the Resources Division. But I consider this the fulfillment of a long-time desire to actinue to work for Nebraska."

Doolittle Against 'Contaminating' Moon With Quick Stunt Shot

Washington (AP) — James H. Doolittle spoke out against a quick stunt shot that would "contaminate" the moon before scientists really have a chance to find out what's up there.

Doolittle didn't say what he meant by contaminate. However, some scientists have objected that if man sends a missile to the moon, or lands there himself, he might unwittingly carry along microscopic forms of life, such as germs.

Later it would be difficult to prove whether life had existed on the moon before man's advent. These scientists want to make intensive efforts to study the moon by instruments, perhaps from space vehicles circulating about it, before making direct contact.

"The moon right now happens to be a very clean place," Doolittle told the House Space Committee, and the scientific community wants to keep it that way until it can find out more about it.

Well Rounded

Instead of a quick moon shot, the famed flier and World War II general said this country should push forward on a well-rounded space program, with scientific data-collecting spaceships and then with space travel by man himself.

Doolittle spoke so strongly in favor of President Eisenhower's plan to set up a civilian space agency that committee chairman McCormack (D-Mass), the House majority leader, said his once-waning enthusiasm for the bill has been rekindled.

Dr. Hugh Dryden, head of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, which would be the core of the new space agency under Eisenhower's plan, pictured Doolittle's testimony as not opposing the 5 lunar probes Eisenhower has already authorized.

Dryden said the first moon missiles would probably send back science data by radio and others would take pictures, not contaminate the moon. He said it is uncertain whether the shots would actually hit the moon.

Charge Denied

Warsaw (AP) — The Polish Foreign Office denied a Norwegian charge that missile launching bases have been installed in Poland.

Indiana To Be Checked

Indianapolis (AP)—A continuous check of radioactivity in every county of Indiana will be started as soon as detectors can be placed in 400 state police cars, the auto of one conservation officer in each county and 170 high schools.

PRIMARY, HOSPITAL BOND VOTING MAY BE SAME DATE

A special county election on issuance of bonds for a county hospital may be held at the same time as the regular primary election if other requirements for the special election are met, Attorney General C. S. Beck ruled.

The poll books and ballots should be separately kept, however.

The opinion was asked by Jack H. Myers of Kimball, the Kimball County attorney.

The last Legislature provided that in counties with a certain minimum population or a certain minimum assessed valuation of taxable property, the county board may call elections on the issuance of hospital bonds.

In response to another question from Myers, the attorney general held that notice of the election should show the purpose and amount of the bond issue, interest rates and other pertinent facts. It should be published in a newspaper published in the county for at least 4 weeks prior to the election.

The election should be authorized by resolution of the county board. The board of trustees of the county hospital has no authority to order such election, the opinion said.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Homer L. Kyle prepared the opinion.

City Condemns Part Of Building At 1132 O Street

The City Council has condemned portions of a 3-story downtown building at 1132 O.

The action prohibits the use of the 3rd floor, basement and part of the 2nd floor. The building inspector reported these areas as structurally unsafe and hazardous.

The building is owned by Joseph S. Wishart and occupied by the Guarantee Clothing Co.

Measles Count Increased By 62

The State Health Department reported Tuesday it registered 62 cases of measles throughout Nebraska during the past week, 23 of which were in Lancaster County.

The new cases bring the total for the year to date to 804, compared to 145 reported cases in 1957. However, at this time in 1956 there were 1,500 cases.

State Poultry, Egg Income Off In '57

Money pocketed by Nebraska farmers from the sale of chickens, eggs, commercial broilers and turkeys declined 13% last year, the State-Federal division of Agricultural Statistics has reported.

Cash receipts totaled $46,200,000 in 1957, compared with $53,200,000 in 1956.

Farm chicken receipts dropped most sharply—42%. Commercial broilers brought in 31% less than a year ago. Cash receipts from turkeys dropped 18% and cash receipts from eggs declined eight %.

Lowest Since '24

Cash receipts from the sale of farm chickens totaled $2,900,000, the lowest annual total since records began to be kept in 1924.

Nebraska produced 1,933,000,000 eggs last year, five % more than the previous year and the largest total since 1946. Cash receipts totaled $38,100,000.

Nebraska broiler production declined 25% and 2,300,000 broilers produced were the fewest for any year since 1948. Cash receipts were $1,300,000, down near $600,000 from 1956.

Cash receipts from sales of 896,000 Nebraska turkeys last year amounted to $3,900,000.

Joy-Riding Sentence 5-Months, $100 Fine

SUBURBIA

COUNTRY CLUB MANOR

Several of our suburban residents have been combining business with pleasure this week during the State Dental Convention which was held in Omaha. Among those returning home today will be Dr. and Mrs. Leland Arnot, Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Pierson, Jr., and Dr. and Mrs. Ray Knapp.

On Friday, Mrs. Arnot will be hostess to 30 neighborhood friends at a 10:30 o'clock coffe to be held at her home. The informal affair is being given in welcoming courtesy to Mrs. F. A. Pierson, Jr., who with her family recently moved into a new home at 3601 Country Club Blvd.

Turning to news of the younger set we learn that Rick Knapp celebrated his sixth birthday on Monday, and in honor of the event was host to friends at an afternoon party at his home. Joining in the festivities were Larry Beck, Patty Boyd, Jimmy Connell, Susan Hitz, Gail Lotman, Suzanne Shackleford, Ronnie Schwab and Jane Wakeham.

A very busy young bride-to-be in our suburb is Miss Sharon Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Boyd, whose marriage to Ronald D. Hile will be an event of Saturday, May 10.

On Tuesday evening, Miss Boyd was honored at a miscellaneous shower and dessert supper given by Mrs. Carl Luhrs. The 20 guests were invited to the Luhrs home for the informal evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd will entertain for their daughter and fiance at a dessert supper following the wedding rehearsal on Thursday, May 8. Members of the bridal party have been invited for the affair.

COUNTRY CLUB TERRACE

Understand that there have been a number of farewell courtesies given for Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Vogt who soon will be making their new home in Kansas City.

Mr. Vogt already has assumed his new position, and Mrs. Vogt and her daughters, Peggy and Susie, will be joining him in June. Incidentally, Mrs. Vogt, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Hall and her daughter Jana, motored to Kansas City on Saturday and will be returning home today. During Mrs. Vogt's absence her mother, Mrs. Rosie Ruhnke of Plymouth, has been visiting her granddaughters in Country Club Terrace.

The Dawn Brought Interesting News

—the week end—and the world—are filled with a number of things, including people. We have just learned of some interesting guests who will be in town for a short stay late this week. The sixsome will include Mr. and Mrs. Clark Pace of New York City who will have in tow Dr. and Mrs. Jens Carlson (he is with the Danish Navy) and Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Norgard, all of Copenhagen.

Mr. and Mrs. Pace met Dr. and Mrs. Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. Norgard while on a trip to the Scandinavian countries a year ago, and now are taking time out to show America to the visitors.

The guests from Copenhagen had three things on their list of "musts"—the Grand Canyon, a ride in a Cadillac, and the Mayo Clinic. All three will have been accomplished by the time the sixsome returns to New York.

During their stay in Lincoln Mr. and Mrs. Pace and the foursome from Copenhagen will be the guests of Mr. Pace's mother, Mrs. I. E. O. Pace, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pace.

* * *

—when once you have served as a United States Senator, feminine gender, you receive very interesting invitations from Washington D.C. In Mrs. George Abel's mailbox the other day was an informal note from Mrs. Alexander Wiley, the wife of Sen. Wiley, inviting Mrs. Abel to the luncheon to be given in the old Supreme Court Chamber on Tuesday, May 20. The hostesses will be members of the Red Cross Unit of the Ladies of the Senate, and it will honor Mrs. Eisenhower, wives of Cabinet members, and the wives of the secretaries of the Army, Navy and the Air Force.

Mrs. Abel is sending her regrets—She will be in Brussels on the day of the luncheon.

* * *

—but back to the week end and more exciting news—We hear that Dr. Harry Senger, the fiance of Miss Nancy Aitken, will be arriving from Chicago on Saturday morning for a brief stay as the guest of Miss Aitken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Aitken.

Complimenting Miss Aitken and Dr. Senger late Saturday afternoon will be Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Drake and their son, Charles Drake, who will be hosts and hostess at an hors d' ourvres party at their home. The small group of guests will include friends of the bride-elect.

The marriage of Miss Aitken to Dr. Senger will be solemnized on Monday, June 16.

* * *

—honoring Miss Aitken and Dr. Senger at a Saturday evening party will be Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson of Newton, Ia., entertaining at the home of Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Aitken.

* * *

—honoring Dr. Senger on Sunday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. William Aitken who will preside at a family dinner at their home.

* * *

—two brides-elect — Miss Barbara Curry, whose marriage to Laurence Durward Van Cleave will be an event of very late May—and Miss Caroline Adams, who is to marry James R. Seaberg on June 7, shared honors on Tuesday evening when Mrs. Ben Gadd was a hostess at her home. The guests were invited for a dessert supper and each of the soon-to-be brides received a one-gift shower.

* * *

—news of the morning involves a number of guests who plan to be in Lincoln for the Mothers' Day week end—We learned that Mr. and Mrs. H. Leamon Lloyd of Anniston, Ala., will be arriving on Saturday, May 10, to spend two weeks as the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Luikart, Jr.

And also guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luikart, Jr. during the May 11th week end will be Mr. Luikart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Luikhart of South Sioux City.

* * *

—back home again, after a whirlwind trip—but a wonderful one to Japan, are Dr. and Mrs. Fred Ferciot who returned to Lincoln Tuesday afternoon. Dr. and Mrs. Ferciot left Lincoln about a month ago, and after a very brief stay on the west coast, flew directly to Japan where they devoted their energies towards seeing as much of the country as possible.

* * *

—have just added another name to the guest list—that of Mrs. Sam Ruby of Portland, Ore., who arrived on Tuesday for a visit with her sister, Miss Nellie Newmark.

Mrs. Ruby, who stopped off en route to her home from Boston, will be honored at numerous informal courtesies during her stay.

Dear Abby . . .

Mother Isn't Wrong!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I called off my daughter's big church wedding because I just found out she would be over three months pregnant at her wedding. I couldn't let her walk down the aisle in white knowing that she was in that condition. Nor could I stand in the receiving line knowing everyone there would also know it in six months. The boy's mother says I am prudish, old-fashioned. I canceled the hall, the invitations and told my daughter she could have the money it would have cost and she should have a quiet wedding at the minister's home at once. Was I wrong?

MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Not in my book you weren't.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I liked a girl very much. She broke up with me because of what I said when she shut the car door on my fingers. I think this is a very poor excuse. How can I get her back?

CLYDE

DEAR CLYDE: If the girl wants to break up with you—one excuse is as good as another. Let her go, Lover.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I get along fine but I don't like the way he treats our children. He acts like he is the captain of a Chain Gang. When he says something, if they don't jump he gets mad. He used to train dogs and ponies and has a small whip. He says he is only cracking it at the legs, but he must be whipping them because I see marks on their legs. They are good kids (two boys) and never sass him but they are growing up in fear and hate for their own father. Please help me.

MAMMA

DEAR MAMMA: "Whips" went out with the horse and buggy. Your husband should have a long talk with your clergyman or family doctor or a psychologist.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I read somewhere that there is somebody for everybody and I believe it. Last Monday a beautiful silver-haired lady walked into this place where I work. She looked at me and I looked at her and we both took a second look. My heart stood still. It seemed that she wanted to get acquainted with me but I could not leave the dishwasher at the time. I would give anything to see her again because I never had that feeling about anybody before. Please tell me how I can find her?

STAN

DEAR STAN: If she felt the same way about you, she knows where she saw you, and she'll be back.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Brides At April Weddings

MRS. LESTER D. INGOLD

Miss Jean Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice White of Providence, R.I., became the bride of Lester D. Ingold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ingold of Columbus, at a ceremony solemnized at high noon Saturday, April 12. The Rev. Oscar Ferland read the lines of the service at St. Michael's Church in Providence.

As her sister's matron of honor, Mrs. Theresa Zielinski of North Attleboro, Mass., wore a frock of mint green taffeta with a small matching hat. She carried a cascade of yellow glamellias, roses and feathered carnations.

Bernard Fisher of Dedham, Mass., served Mr. Ingold as best man.

For her wedding, the bride chose a sheath gown of white imported lace fashioned in the daytime length and accented by a full overskirt of white peau de soie. Scallops of the lace bordered the wide decolletage of the lace bodice, and were repeated at the edge of the bracelet sleeves. A cloche of pearl-embroidered lace held her shoulder veil of illusion, and she carried a crescent arrangement of white glamellias, roses and feathered carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingold are residing temporarily in Providence until June when the bridegroom will receive his discharge from the Navy. They will make their home in Lincoln where Mr. Ingold, a member of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity, will continue his studies at the University of Nebraska.

MRS. DONALD HARRISON

The wedding of Miss Doris Rae Grow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Grow of Loup City, and Donald Harrison, took place on Saturday evening, April 5, at the First Baptist Church in Loup City. The Rev. Charles Segestrom read the lines of the service, and Mrs. Robert L. Cox of Grand Island, organist, played the wedding music. The vocal soloist was Robert L. Cox.

The maid of honor and her sister's only attendant was Miss Lois Grow who wore a full-skirted frock of pastel green chiffon accented by a large, bustle bow. Her matching hat was briefly veiled with illusion.

Charles Grow, brother of the bride, served as best man, and seating the guests were Harold Olson and James Olson.

The bride appeared in a gown of white Alencon lace over satin. Iridescent sequins patterned the lace to highlight the rounded neckline, and the brief sleeves were completed by long mitts of the lace. Natural scallops of the lace edged the wide, ballerina skirt, and her veil of illusion was held by a lace cap. She carried a white Bible ornamented with pink rosebuds.

Following a wedding trip to Colorado, Mrs. Harrison will reside in Lincoln until she can join her husband at Seville, Spain, where he is stationed with the Air Force.

Courtesy

In pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Leona Hendricks whose engagement to Gene L. Thompson was announced recently, Miss Sara Jane Coatney and Miss Doris Karr will entertain at a personal and linen shower on Wednesday, April 30. The 20 guests will include Southeast High School classmates of the honoree and hostesses.

Miss Hendricks and her fiance plan a June 7 wedding.

Luncheon

The annual Ivy Day luncheon of Mortar Board Alumnae will be held at noon Saturday at the Student Union. Reservations may be made by contacting Miss Elsie Ford Piper, 7-2996.

New Floor Care Ends Waxing

One of the difficult jobs of housekeeping is to wax linoleum and asphalt tile floors. Now, thanks to Glaxo, it's no longer necessary to wax and scrub; just apply Glaxo about twice a year. It maintains a high lustre, non slip coating that seals out dirt. Glaxo dries in one hour and is water clear. It's cheaper than wax in the long run besides saving a terrific amount of work, plus truly a beautiful floor.

Deitemeyer Charges Press Of East Is Unfair To Ag

Chicago (AP)—Farmers in the nation's breadbasket have been victims of an unfair eastern industrial press, declared Carl Deitemeyer of Lincoln, Neb.

Deitemeyer, Republican candidate for Congress, made the statement Monday before members of the Chicago Agricultural Club.

He said it is untrue that farmers are any more subsidized than other segments of our economy.

Deitemeyer emphasized that he wasn't defending subsidies, but merely pointing out that airlines, railroads, publications, labor and most industries receive subsidies of one form or another.

These subsidies take the form of special postal rates, tariffs, minimum wages, fast tax write-offs and federally guaranteed profit contracts, and tariffs, he said.

He added that many easterners have the impression that all farmers and ranchers spend their winters in Florida and drive big cars.

The record shows, said Deitemeyer, that only 2% of the nation's farmers have gross incomes of $50,000 or more. The average income of farmers is just one-half of his city cousin's, he pointed out.

Cunningham Favors Reorganization

Washington, D.C. — Nebraska Congressman Glenn Cunningham said he is "100% in favor of the reorganization of the Defense Department as proposed by President Eisenhower."

The Second District Republican from Omaha further said he believed the President's reorganization plan "is the most important piece of legislation to come before the 85th Congress."

Cunningham said he expected the people to support the President on this matter, because "when it comes to military matters, he is by far the best-informed person in the country."

STANDARD
You expect more from Standard ...and get it!

100 private cars were driven by their owners for three months of ordinary daily rounds—to school, shopping, work . . . in city traffic and on the highway. No professional drivers, no charted courses. Gold Crown was tested the way we all drive.

Cars that started the test using competitive brands were switched to Gold Crown Super-Premium. Complete records of mileage and gasoline were kept throughout the test. The drivers did not know what brands of gasoline they were testing.

Accurate records—down to tenths of a mile and fractions of a gallon—proved what so many Gold Crown users have reported . . . extra mileage with Gold Crown, particularly at highway speeds, when fouled spark plugs waste power and fuel.

One big reason Gold Crown gives more miles—a few tankfuls restore full fire to most fouled spark plugs. Plug on left is fouled, spark is erratic, wasting gas. Plug at right shows how Gold Crown restores spark for full power, more mileage.

Satellites Via Plane Proposed

... By Physicists

Denver (AP) — A team of Brooklyn physicists said it would be feasible and profitable to launch satellites from airplanes.

The scientists told an astronautics symposium the use of an airplane, in effect, as the first stage of a space ship would greatly reduce the thrust required by a satellite to attain an orbit around the earth.

They proposed the use, for launching purposes, of supersonic aircraft "which are now technically feasible" — jet planes which would use additional ramjet engines at high altitudes to attain velocities from 2 to 6 times the speed of sound.

Use of such an airplane for the first or launching stage would make it possible to place a 10,000-pound satellite into an orbit 200 miles above the earth with rockets totaling only 150,000 pounds of thrust, they said.

By comparison, a conventional all-rocket system would require motors with a thrust of about 1,000,000 pounds.

Scientist Team

The paper was prepared by a scientist team from the Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn. The authors included Antonio Ferri, Louis M. Nucci, Walter Daskin and Lewis Feldman.

They said that the weight of the satellite to be put into orbit by a given rocket increases substantially with each increase in supersonic speed on the part of the launching aircraft.

However, above 4 times the speed of sound—above 2,400 to 2,800 miles an hour—the added mass of the airplane required would outweigh the disadvantages of the large rocket engines required for slower speeds.

The scientists said use of an "air breathing, lifting first stage"—an airplane—for satellite launching eliminates the need for large, fixed rocket launching pads and sites.

"The launch can be initiated from any large airport or airstrip from which the aircraft can operate," they said.

Mom, Dad And 13 Boys Welcome Girl Into Family

Johnson City, Tenn. (AP) — After 24 years now, the patter of little girl's feet may be heard soon around the household of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Harrison.

And the 13 Harrison boys will like that.

Mrs. Harrison gave birth to her first daughter to go along with the 13 living sons. One son is dead.

"I'm pleased as punch," Harrison chuckled, "and all the boys are pleased, too." He and some of the sons operate a nearby farm.

The Harrison family gained nationwide publicity in April, 1955, when Ivan Houston was born—the 14th son in a row without a daughter the family had wanted for several years.

The brothers range in age from 24 to 3.

Mother and daughter were reported doing nicely at a Johnson City hospital.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. Phillies Knock Giants From Lead

Braves New NL Pacers

San Francisco (AP)—Veteran outfielder Dave Philley blasted a 370-foot home run in the fifth inning Tuesday and sent Philadelphia's Phillies on to a 7-4 victory that knocked the San Francisco Giants out of first place in the National League.

A crowd of 6,801, smallest of the season and far below the daily average of 18,522, turned out for this opener of a five-game series.

Philley's blast, his third hit of the game, started the Phils on a four-runner that brought the first pitching victory of the season to left hander Curt Simmons although he wasn't around at the finish.

The setback left San Francisco with an 8-5 record, a half game behind the world champion Milwaukee Braves, who defeated the Chicago Cubs 8-4. It also snapped the two-game victory string of Venezuelan right hander Ramont Monzant who was charged with five runs, three earned, before leaving the game in the fifth.

The right hander gave up another hit and two walks to fill the bases before Curt Barclay, another right hander, relieved him. Wally Post greeted the new pitcher with a single that scored two runs. The fourth score of the inning came on Hank Sauer's bad throw from left field.

Friend's 4-Hitter Baffles Dodgers

Los Angeles (AP) — Unbeaten Bob Friend won his third with a four-hitter as the Pittsburgh Pirates whipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 7-1 for their fourth straight victory.

Frank Thomas, who belted his second home run, and Hank Foiles each had three of the Pirates' 11 hits and each drove in two runs.

Right-hander Carl Erskine shelled in a four-run eighth, lost his fourth straight to the Pirates since 1955 and now is 1-1 for the season.

Friend, a 27-year-old right-hander, struck out five and gave up but two walks—both with two out in the eighth.

Long Coast Fences Making Homers Scarce

Musial Says NL Is Tough For Left-Hand Hitters

Cincinnati (AP)—Stan Musial, who appears to be under no handicap, said Tuesday the National League is "making it tough on the old left-handed hitter."

"First they take away the Polo Grounds and Ebbets Field, both with a short front porch in right field, and now Cincinnati pushes the fence farther back," he said.

The St. Louis Cardinal great also cited the wind that blows in from right field at San Francisco and the obvious advantage for right-handers at Los Angeles.

All of the 28 home runs hit in the first nine games at the Coliseum in Los Angeles were by right-handed batters.

Musial collected 14 hits in 22 trips in his first tour of the West—seven for eleven at each park—for a rousing .636 average. He was far in front in the league batting race with .533 before the St. Louis series at Cincinnati.

He passed out a few tips for fellow left-handers:

"On the coast you've got to swing at strikes only and you've got to do one more thing—that is, keep your confidence. There's still no defense for a line drive.

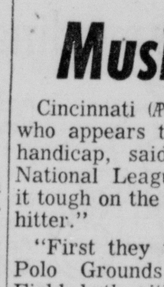

"You can't change your swing but you can shop around more at the plate, trying to get a ball more away from you that you'd ordinarily like to pull.

"Where there's a short right field fence, like the Polo Grounds, I've swung at balls that were inside, off the plate, trying to get out in front of the pitch and hook it on the fair side of the foul poles."

Fred Hutchinson, manager of the last-place Cardinals, took time out from his worries to talk about the performance of this 37-year-old star on the west coast.

"I don't believe I've ever seen a man do so well under such a tremendous buildup," Hutch said.

"Stan is becoming a legend in his time."

Sports Editor, The Star

Any discussion of Nebraska football at this point, of course, must be tempered with Bill Jennings' observation: "You can't really tell too much when you play yourself."

Bill is on solid ground with that one. More than a few times in recent years Nebraskans have started heel-clicking after the Reds thumped the Whites in an intra-squad game. Then, in the fall, they shuddered when the Huskers went up against somebody for real.

Bill Glassford got fooled one fall when he came up with two evenly-matched clubs in fall camp. Neither team could whip the other and both turned in impressive performances in scrimmage. There was a lot of talk about depth and two-deep lineups and Husker prospects soared.

Once the season got underway, it was evident that Bill had summed up the situation correctly. Both NU teams were evenly matched against each other, but they were over-matched against outsiders.

Thus, spring practice offers little true insight to a fall won-lost record. But you can get some idea of the general pattern which is being formed.

Right now, I'd say the Cornhuskers are quite a ways ahead of last year's pace, mainly because of the addition of the single wing to the offense, squad morale and physical conditioning.

If you'll remember, the kids were just getting over the shock of realizing Pete Elliott had sold them a bill of goods and another new regime was taking the reins. And the personnel to operate a first-class split-T offense just wasn't in camp.

While I missed the early days of spring practice to catch the Lincoln Chiefs warm up and got my first good look at the "new" Huskers only last week, it appears that Nebraska will come up with a more interesting—and effective—offense than it has had the past couple of years.

By introducing the single wing, along with the split T, the Huskers will at least be able to keep the defense honest. And fellows like Pat Fischer and Max Martz look like they can make some yards from the tailback spot.

Spirit is an intangible thing, but its value can't be under estimated. Not that spirit alone will win games (Oklahoma is the prime example of top squad morale, but the Sooners also have some pretty fine horses), but a team that has it is better off than the one that doesn't.

At the moment, the most important result of the Huskers' good spirit will be that the boys will become better football players—which will help them in the fall.

One of last Saturday's officials gave a tip-off on the morale picture when he said: "Those kids—some of them roommates—were getting mad at each other. One boy told an opponent, who complained about some rough stuff, to give some back because he intended to play just as rough as he pleased."

That kind of competition is bound to pay off.

The current crop of Huskers has much better backfield speed than the 1957 club, although the line is smaller. Inexperience is there by the car-load, but the spirits seem more than willing to hit hard and learn the football alphabet.

Like Bill Jennings says, you can't tell much by playing yourself. But there are several signs to indicate that the Cornhuskers are making important progress.

Which means Nebraska is enjoying a successful 1958 spring practice.

Unauthorized Glad-Hander

An over-zealous San Francisco Giant fan rushes out of the stands in the eighth inning Tuesday to congratulate Hank Sauer, Giant outfielder, crossing home plate after blasting a 370-foot homer into left field to score two 'Frisco runs. It was Hank's 7th homer of the season, but it wasn't enough as the Philadelphia Phillies won the game, 7-4. Officially greeting Hank at the plate is Orlando Cepeda (30), Giant first baseman who is waiting his turn at bat along with a Giant bat boy. (AP Wirephoto).

Lefty Hurler's Bat Helps 6-1 Triumph

By Don Bryant

Lincoln has enjoyed the presence of some pretty salty left-handed pitchers in past years.

And Dick Lines of the 1958 staff has served notice he's ready to carry on a tradition launched by Bobby Shantz and continued by such fellows as Don Rowe and Joe Gibbon.

Lines Tuesday night stopped Topeka on a mere four hits for the second straight time. In his debut last Friday at Topeka he picked up his first victory.

Tuesday night, despite the 40-degree temperature and the fact that only 238 were on hand to cheer him on, the slim southpaw was just as effective in handing the Hawks their fifth loss in six outings—all at the hands of the Chiefs.

And Lines wasn't satisfied just to keep the Topeka bats on ice. He got three-for-four at the plate, drove in two runs (including the go-ahead tally in the second) and fielded his position flawlessly.

Dick registered four assists, once throwing out Ruf Johnson after fielding a sizzling smash on his left thigh.

Monty Basgall's Chiefs now get a change of scenery after six straight games with the Hawks. The Des Moines Demons move into Sherman Field tonight to open a three-game series. Jack Sanford will make his debut for the Chiefs in the 8 p.m. contest.

Lines lost his shutout in the first inning Tuesday night as Clem Koshorek circled the bases on a walk, two passed balls and an infield out. But after that he was the master. Jim Pokel's infield single in the second, Ben Dye's single in the third, Ron Henry's double in the seventh and Dud Whitley's infield tap in the ninth were the only safeties off the Lincoln lefty.

Manuel Javier quickly erased Lincoln's one-run deficit in the first when he led off with a home run and Lines drove in Morris Cigar with the lead run in the second.

After that the Chiefs just added insurance as they tagged three Hawk hurlers for 13 hits. Singles by Vern Piver and Lines, a Topeka error, and Jim Aldredge's base hit in the fourth made it 4-1.

Piver's double and Lines' single in the fifth added an-

Plainsmen Beat Peru Baseballers

Peru — Lonnie Johnson's grand slam home run in the top of the sixth triggered Nebraska Wesleyan to a 9-5 victory over Peru State here Tuesday in a Nebraska College Baseball Conference game.

The victory was the second of the season for the Plainsmen and left their NCBC record at 2-6.

Johnson's big home run highlighted a five-run uprising in the sixth that netted five Wesleyan runs to clinch the contest.

Don Gillham had homered earlier with a mate aboard to give Wesleyan an early 3-0 advantage. Gillham and Johnson contributed seven hits and seven runs batted in to the Wesleyan offense.

Peru got its first run off Wesleyan winner Lonnie Slaughter in the seventh and added four more in the eighth on a pair of walks and doubles by Tom Vincent and Jerry Collier off Duane Eichorn.

Chuck Francis took the loss for Peru, bearing the brunt of Wesleyan's 15-hit attack.

Chase After Girls Started Fabulous Career For Speedster Murchison

Kalamazoo, Mich. (AP) — Squat Ira Murchison had never given track a thought until some giggling girls grabbed his textbooks one afternoon during Ira's senior year in Chicago's Phillips High School.

"I chased them," said the Western Michigan runner, "and the track coach saw me running and asked me to try out for the team. That started it all."

Now 24, Ira has made his lightning speed good for a college education, four trips abroad and enough trophies, ribbons and medals to stock a store.

His most prized possession is the gold medal he won as a member of the U.S. 400-meter relay team in the 1955 Olympics in Australia. "I can't describe the thrill of winning a world title for your country with 100,000 people watching," he said.

IRA MURCHISON

Murchison has run world record times in five distances. He specializes in the dashes. He said he probably would not have been able to go to college "without the help of my running."

For the next few weeks Ira will be busy with his college team, working toward a June schedule that starts with the central collegiate meet and includes the NCAA and national AAU meets in California in mid-June.

In the past four years he has run in Greece, Italy, Germany, France, England, Spain, Portugal, Australia, Hawaii, the Fiji Islands and even behind the Iron Curtain in Romania.

The only American in the British Empire Games in 1956, Ira won both the 100-yard and 200-yard dashes, and afterward met Queen Elizabeth.

His coach, George Dales, said: "Ira hasn't let success go to his head and even though he's one of the best in the world, he puts in at least two hours of practice every day. I'd like to have him around for another 10 years, but I don't know where we'd stack the trophies."

Lane Raps Free-For-All Spending

Chicago (AP)—While a major-minor committee put baseball's new four-year player draft rule into formal language Tuesday, Cleveland's Frank Lane blasted free-for-all spending by the majors on bonus players.

At last December's meetings in Colorado Springs, Colo., baseball men approved the four-year draft rule in principle. At the same time, the so-called bonus rule was shelved, permitting wide-open bidding for player talent.

"Since Dec. 4, one and one quarter million dollars have been spent in bonuses for fuzzy-cheeked kids," asserted General Manager Lane of the Indians, "and if three or four make good it will be tremendous."

Lane was still in Chicago after attending Monday's meeting of the major league committee on territorial rights which recommended amending of machinery to expand the majors and facilitate franchise shifts.

Although a proponent of rejecting the bonus rule, Lane said his "very important" amendment to permit three first year players to be drafted from every minor league club was turned down.

Commissioner Ford Frick headed a six-man group which Tuesday formally wrote into baseball's "blue book" the language of the new draft rule.

This permits a major league club to draft any number of players, with at least four years experience, from a minor league club at $25,000 per head.

Formerly, only one player could be drafted, at $10,000 fee, by a major from a top minor club.

If a major league club returns a drafted player to a minor club, it gets only $12,500 back. This is to assure a bona fide draft system, one that baseball hopes will discourage keeping potential major leaguers in the minors.

One committee member, President Warren Giles of the National League, said the new rule will become effective with the next player draft in December.

Milwaukee Wins As Walls Hits 2

Chicago (AP)—Warren Spahn served nine hits, including a pair of homers by Lee Walls, to register his third victory of the season Tuesday as the Milwaukee Braves cooled off the Chicago Cubs 8-4, and gained the lead in the National League.

Walls boosted his homer production to seven for the season. He hit only six all last year.

Spahn retired the first 10 men he faced before Walls slapped a single to left center in the fourth. Rookie Johnny Goryl's single drove in the Cubs' first run in the fifth, Bobby Thomson scoring. Thomson had doubled.

other and the third Topeka pitcher, Bob Dudley, wild-pitched in the final tally in the eighth.

Smoke Signals. . . Cigar, Piver and Lines—the bottom three men in the Lincoln order—got seven of the Chiefs hits. . . The Lincoln eighth was spiced with a weird rundown which finally erased Ray Looney. The play went pitcher-to-catcher-to-third - to first-to-third-to-first, with Jim Pokel, Hawk first-baseman, making the tag at third. Javier was the original target on the play. . . Basgall, worried about Lincoln's lack of run-scoring punch (the Chiefs left 12 to run the three-game count to 30) had high praise for Lines' bat: "Dick was great—on the mound and at bat. He's the best clutch-hitter on the club."

Tigers Refuse To OK Date To Have Negroes

Detroit (AP)—The Detroit Tigers have refused to set a date by which the baseball club would have a Negro player on its roster, despite a Negro group's threat to boycott Briggs Stadium.

Harvey Hansen, Tiger president, said a group which calls itself the Briggs Stadium Boycott Committee of Detroit demanded to know when the club planned to sign a Negro to a major league contract.

"They insisted that we make such a commitment whether we had a qualified major league Negro ballplayer or not," Hansen said. "We refused, however, to make a definite commitment, in spite of the threat of boycott."

Hansen added that he told the group, "we are making every effort to develop qualified big league players, regardless of color, and that we would have a Negro player on our roster at the earliest date that such a qualified player was ready."

"Their desire was more to have a Negro player than to have a good Negro player," the club president said of the group's demand.

Hansen said the Tigers have 17 Negroes in their 180-player farm system.

The boycott committee is headed by the Rev. George Hill Jr., dean of the United Theological Seminary in Detroit, and claims a membership of about 40.

Prior to the meeting, the Rev. Hill said, "We feel that the club has had ample opportunity and time to hire colored ball players."

Shantz Throttles Tigers On 6 Hits

New York (AP)—Little Bobby Shantz, a Detroit nemesis from way back, throttled the Tigers with 6 hits and big Bill Skowron poled a pair of home runs as the New York Yankees opened their home stand against the Western clubs Tuesday with a 5-1 victory that solidified their hold on first place.

Shantz, posting his second triumph without a defeat, struck out 7 and permitted no hit longer than a double. He lost his shutout in the ninth when Frank Bolling singled, his brother, Milt, doubled and Harvey Kuenn scored Frank with a sacrifice fly. Until then no Tiger had passed second base.

The pint-sized southpaw, who hasn't lost to the Tigers since 1950, also contributed to the Yankee cause with his bat, collecting a single and double in his first 2 trips to the plate. His two-bagger, in the fourth, was turned into a run when Hank Bauer followed with a single.

Shantz now owns a string of 11 consecutive victories over Detroit and his lifetime mark against the Tigers is 15-2.

The Yankees assaulted 3 pitchers for 13 hits. Skowron smashed a single in addition to the four-baggers, his first two of the season. Yogi Berra also whacked a home run, his second of the campaign. Bauer and Norm Siebern had 2 singles each.

Until the ninth the only Tiger who was able to hit Shantz with any degree of success was Gus Zernial.

Cold Weather Slows Fishing; Some Big Ones Caught

Nebraska's inclement weather of recent days drastically reduced fishing pressure but did not effect the number of trophy fish hauled ashore. Ponderous fish were the rule rather than the exception, according to the county-by-county reports filed by Nebraska's conservation officers.

Officer Loron Bunney, Ogallala, reported "two snow storms in a week." Cecil Avey, Crawford, said "weather was cold and snowy, with roads in bad shape." From Rushville, Ed Greving reported "fishing pressure nil except on Sunday because of snow and cold weather."

Leading the big-fish brigade was Delmar Mead of Champion, who caught a 41-inch-long, 18-pound northern pike in Enders Lake. The pike, biggest reported taken this year, was hooked on a minnow.

Others in the trophy-fish group included: Dr. Les Hyland, North Platte, 2-pound, 1-ounce crappie in Maloney; George Wing, North Platte, 7-pound, 3-ounce walleye in Sutherland Outlet on worms; Eddie Rosencutter, North Platte, 13-pound, 14-ounce catfish in Maloney on a chub; Roy Hartzer, Wauneta, 12-pound catfish in Enders; Milford Skoog and son Danny, Holdrege, limit of 3 to 5-pound walleyes in Harlan County Reservoir; Leonard Kimes, Nenzel, 21½-inch, 4-pound rainbow trout in North Loup River on worms.

Nebraska's most productive waters were Fremont Lake good for trout, excellent for bullheads and carp; Dead Timber excellent for bullheads; Harlan Reservoir good for northern pike, bullheads, carp; Medicine Creek Reservoir for walleyes and bass; and Elm Creek, Rock Creek State Lake, White River, and Big and Little Bordeaux Creeks for trout.

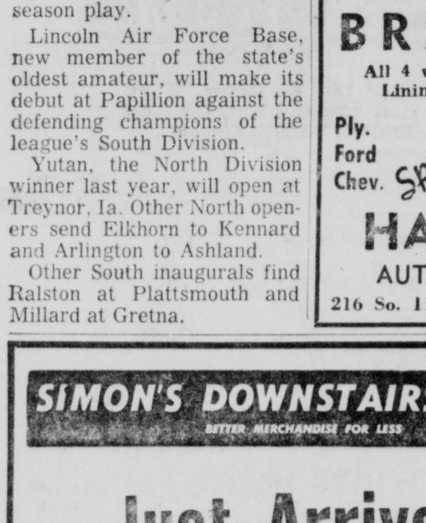

Medicine Creek Reservoir produced a 4-pound bass for Carol Turner, Hastings; 7-pound walleye on fly rod for Jack Troxel.

Broadcasters Urged To Editorialize

FCC Chairman Criticizes Editors

Los Angeles (AP) — The nation's broadcasters were urged to make wider use of their right to editorialize.

Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission at the same time criticized newspaper editors in their handling of the news.

"Having fought and won the battle for the right to editorialize," he told the National Assn. of Broadcasters in convention here, "the broadcasters have failed to follow up this conquest. . .

"The proffered reasons for their reluctance are the risks involved. Broadcasters are fearful of displeasing the sponsors, the listening public or public officials. . .

"It is true that a broadcaster must exercise more care than a press editor. After all, the newspaper publisher need not seek the renewal of a license every 3 years. He may be hasty, careless, vindictive or callous to accepted standards of fairness. Not so a broadcaster. He must use reasonable care to be fair and has an affirmative obligation to ensure the presentation of conflicting views. . .

Refreshing

"But is this bad?. . . It promises to be a refreshing experience for many people who have been the captive readers of some local newspapers."

Doerfer, who figured in recent congressional investigation of the FCC, did not identify any particular newspaper.

Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark) who headed the FCC probe, sent a message from Washington threatening a new investigation of the FCC if the commission authorizes a pay-TV test after Congress adjourns.

Harris, chairman of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, said the FCC had indicated such a test 30 days after adjournment of Congress. "This authorization of such a test would be in effect adopting the program," he said, adding:

"If the commission decides to undertake the trial tests, I shall call the committee back into session and conduct hearings into the entire problem."

Protests

Harris said Congress has received 100,000 protests against pay television.

Dr. Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System, received the NAB keynote award "for his tireless and devoted leadership in the development of the American system of broadcasting. . ."

Stanton called on the broadcasters to meet the responsibility of keeping the people constantly and instantly informed.

About 2,100 radio and TV station owners, executives and engineers are attending the sessions.

NEHRU WANTS TO STEP DOWN

New Delhi, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru told India's ruling Congress Party that he wants to retire from the government "to fit myself for great tasks ahead."

The 68-year-old leader's announcement caused consternation among many of his followers. The Congress Party called an extraordinary session of its leaders for Wednesday to consider Nehru's request for guidance in his decision.

Within 2 hours after he returned from a tour of Kerala, India's only Communist-ruled state, the prime minister read a prepared statement to a party meeting saying:

"I feel now I must have a period when I can free myself from the daily burden and can think of myself as a citizen of India and not as prime minister."

NU Senior Heads Region Young Demos

Tom Henderson of Lincoln has been named director of Region 6 of the Young Democratic Clubs of America, representing Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska.

Henderson

A senior at the University of Nebraska majoring in political science and labor relations, Henderson will automatically become a member of the 12-man national board of directors of the Young Democratic Clubs.

Henderson will be responsible for coordinating regional workshops, leadership training programs, a first voters campaign, college activities and a young women's program among the various states in executing the national Young Democratic program in the 1958 campaign.

Formerly active in California Young Democratic Circles, Henderson is now serving as president of the Young Democratic Clubs of Nebraska and headed the Nebraska delegation to the 1957 YD convention in Reno, Nev.

Lincoln Firm Gets Re-Roofing Job Of City Auditorium

Beatrice, Neb.—The City Council accepted, subject to recommendations of Harold C. Potter, special engineer, the bid of Hinman Brothers of Lincoln for re-roofing the city auditorium. The Hinman firm bid $6,370 on the job.

The council voted 6-1 to lease the Riverside Park Pavilion to the Beatrice American Legion Post for the purpose of holding dances under a similar agreement to the one in 1957. The city gets 25% of the profit from the dances but the Park Board had complained that last year there was no profit so the city got nothing.

The park board asked that the lease expire on or before Oct. 27 so that picnic tables and benches could be stored in the pavilion before halloween to prevent damage.

Dr. H. M. Hepperlein was re-appointed city physician by the council; and Paul Allen was appointed to the board of public works for a 3-year-term.

Bangs Disease Eradication Plans Are Accelerated

Efforts are being stepped up to organize all Nebraska counties in the Brucellosis (Bangs Disease) eradication program, Dr. E. Crosby Howe of the state brucellosis committee reported.

By the end of this year, all counties except Scotts Bluff and Morrill probably will be organized under the program.

If this stage is reached, the committee believes it would be practical to ask legislation bringing the entire state under the program, Dr. Howe said.

The committee is an informal group created in 1952 to review policies and assemble recommendations of members. Chairman is M. D. Graham of the Roberts Dairy Co., Omaha.

Sen. Portsche Asks Opinion On Car Use

State Sen. Stan Portsche of Lincoln's 19th Dist., has requested a formal opinion from attorney General C. S. Beck seeking clarification of laws governing the use of state-owned automobiles.

Portsche said if present Nebraska laws contain loopholes which permit private use of state-owned automobiles, he will seek remedial action when the Legislature convenes again.

The Lincoln senator said his concern has grown out of recent allegations that a Railway Commission employe has been using a state automobile for travel between Commission offices in Lincoln and his home in Omaha.

The charges were made by Marilyn Jeanne Stroman, GOP candidate for the railway Commission, against the Commission's Acting Secretary Wade Hall.

Stating that he believes such personal use is prohibited, Portsche said if a loophole does exist, he will, if re-elected to the Legislature, "see that proper legislation is enacted in order to preserve the taxpayers funds."

Tax Base Drive Making Progress, Says Sen. Otto

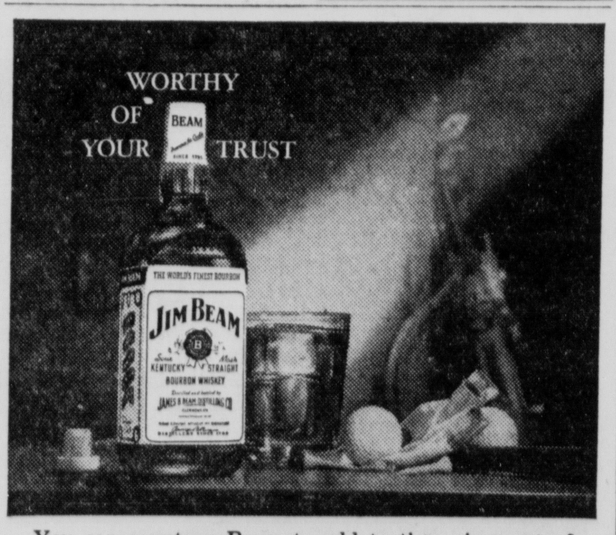

Kearney, Neb. (AP) — State Senator Norman Otto of Kearney chairman of the Nebraska Tax Equity Council, said that the petition drive for a constitutional amendment to broaden the tax base is progressing better than anticipated.

Otto reported that during the last 2 weeks representatives of the tax council have been meeting with citizens in communities over the state organizing the petition drive. He added that local committees have been organized in every important community in the state.

More Wet Weather Further Stalls Field Work; Wheat Progress Good

It has been an uphill battle but nearly 90% of Nebraska's oats and barley crop has now been planted, government crop observers reported Tuesday.

Wet weather has stalled field work through much of the spring, and moisture again threw a momentary block in the way of progress last week to keep things generally behind schedule.

But a few clear days and long working hours helped farmers with seeding, ground preparation for corn and sorghums, fertilizing and other field operations.

Some oats and barley remain to be seeded in northern and western sections, according to the weekly crop report of the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics, but most of the acreage in the main producing eastern areas now is planted.

In some areas the planting delay became so extended that farmers had to shift to later planted crops such as corn, sorghums and soybeans.

The early planted oats and barley are up to a good stand, the crop report noted. Recent rains gave new seedings a good start, especially where surface soil had dried after seeding or the ground was crusty and cloddy.

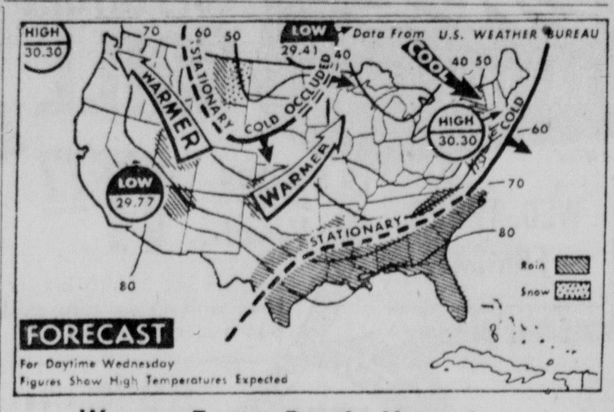

Winter wheat and other winter grains continue to make good progress. Wheat is growing rank but generally has good color, the report said. Some soil-borne mosaic is noted in eastern counties.

Only a small part of the crop has been pastured. Heavy rains flattened some of the most advanced fields.

Alfalfa and pastures could use sunshine and warmer weather, although cool season grasses have made good progress.

Precipitation during the past week included:

Warmer Temps Due In Many Areas

Showers and thunderstorms are due Wednesday for the Gulf coast states, Texas panhandle and southeast section of the nation. Snow flurries and rain showers are slated for New York state, the eastern divide and higher elevations of Utah and Arizona. Warmer temperatures are set for the rest of the nation, except for cooler over the Ohio and Tennessee valleys and New England. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Hastings Feels Scout Jamboree Chances 'Good'

Washington (AP) — Nebraska members of Congress were told Tuesday Hastings was "very optimistic" about chances of getting the National Boy Scout Jamboree in 1960.

C. L. Van Horne, representing the Hastings Chamber of Commerce, told the weekly breakfast meeting of the Nebraska delegation, that the Jamboree would be attended by about 65,000 boys.

"It still has to go through channels," Van Horne said, "but we are very optimistic."

Van Horne, here to attend a meeting of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, said he was meeting with Navy Department officials in an effort to secure permission for use of Naval Ammunition Depot land near Hastings.

About 4,000 acres would be needed, he added.

The breakfast was attended by about 50 persons, mostly representatives of Chambers of Commerce in Omaha, Lincoln, Hastings, Grand Island, Beatrice, Norfolk and Fullerton.

Shortage Of Farm Help Continues

A shortage of farm workers continues through much of Nebraska, the State Labor Department's division of employment security reported Tuesday.

The shortage will remain acute for another 3 weeks but may ease then as school youths become available for employment, the agency said.

Placements of farm and ranch workers by employment offices last week totaled 352.

Grain Stocks Set Apr. 1 Record Mark

Nebraska's feed grain bin is bulging.

As of Apr. 1, stocks of feed grains in all positions totaled 9,100,000 tons, a record for the spring date, the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics reported.

The quantity nearly doubled the 4,700,000 tons on hand a year earlier and reflects the bumper production of corn, grain, sorghum and oats last year.

Nebraska News

The feed grain figure as of Apr. 1:

Corn, 266 million bushels in stock, 67 per cent more than the 159 million bushels on hand a year earlier.

Oats, 25,203,000 bushels on hand, compared with 8,814,000 a year ago.

Barley, 4,526,000 bushels, more than four times greater than year-ago stocks.

Grain sorghum, 42,366,000 bushels, nearly 10 times as much as was on hand a year earlier.

Stocks of food grains—wheat and rye—also topped year-ago figures.

Wheat in all Nebraska positions Apr. 1 totaled 103,226,000 bushels, compared with 92,296,000 a year earlier. The portion held on farms increased from 12,293,000 bushels last year to 20,493,000 bushels this spring.

Rye stocks Apr. 1 totaled 985,000 bushels, compared with 480,000 bushels a year earlier.

BlazeDamage Hits $450,000

Ogallala, Neb. (AP)—Loss in the fire at the Cater Construction Co. has been estimated at $450,000.

Fire Chief John Hilderbrand said that figure came from H. L. Cater, Kansas City, Mo., who owned the big frame warehouse and most of the heavy construction equipment which it contained.

Cause of the fire which destroyed the building and contents had not been determined. Deputy State Fire Marshal Fred Otte of Minatare was expected in Ogallala to investigate.

Cater told Hilderbrand that $250,000 of the loss was covered by insurance.

Directors Okay Report Calling Mid-State Sound

Grand Island, Neb. (AP) — The board of directors of the trict Tuesday approved a report calling the Mid-State project "sound from an engineering standpoint" and "economically feasible."

The board acted upon recommendation of Chief Engineer Doyle E. Graham after hearing the report of R. W. Beck and Associates, consulting engineers from Columbus. The report has been in preparation since November, 1957.

The report will be forwarded to Secretary of the Interior Fred Seaton and the Nebraska Congressional Delegation. Mid-State officials expressed hope the necessary agencies would review the report quickly, so a hearing could be held on the Mid-State project bill during the present session of Congress.

Sowers Find No Recession Signs As Tour Of West, Central Starts

Sidney, Neb. — No recession signs were in evidence to Lincoln Sowers Tuesday on the first day of their 3-day trip to western and central Nebraska.

The Lincolnites, goodwill group of the Chamber of Commerce, were dinner guests at Sidney Tuesday night. Ray Ramsay of Lincoln, was the main speaker with Fred Cox, another Sower, serving as master of ceremonies.

Welcome flags were out as the Sowers made their first stop of the day at Lexington. A group of 150 persons including Mayor George Keller, Chamber President Albert A. Kjar and Lloyd Kain, editor of the Lexington Clipper, greeted the visitors.

One hundred and 30 persons attended the joint Chamber of Commerce-Rotary luncheon at Cozad in honor of the Lincoln Sowers. Presiding were Glendon Maline, Cozad Chamber head, and Don Hermansen, Sower. I. W. Wheeler, chairman of the Sowers, also spoke.

Other stops Tuesday included North Platte, Big Springs, Chappell and Lodgepole. Wednesday visits will be made to Bridgeport, Gering, Mitchell, Scottsbluff, Minatare, Bayard, Broadwater, Oshkosh, Lewellen, and Ogallala.

North Platte Chief Of Police Resigns

North Platte, Neb. (AP) — North Platte Chief of Police Darrall Young Tuesday announced his resignation effective May 15.

Young said he has had several offers of other positions in the law enforcement field.

The City Council will act on the resignation May 6.

State Jaycees Will Stage Huge Parade

Omaha (AP) — Nebraska Jaycees plan to stage one of the biggest parades in Omaha history Saturday as part of the state Junior Chamber of Commerce convention.

Floats from most of the 60 Nebraska Jaycee chapters are entered in the parade. The theme is "Nebraska Young Men of Action Salute Nebraska Industry."

A total of 110 units had been entered Tuesday. Fifteen bands were included.

The convention opens Friday and continues through Sunday. The Friday session will include the state executive meeting, judging of scrapbooks and introduction of state candidates, which will take place in the evening. A dance is also scheduled in the evening.

Besides the parade there will be an awards luncheon and a general business session Saturday. The annual banquet will be held in the evening.

Another general business session is scheduled Sunday. Elections will take place at this session.

One item on which the convention will vote is a proposal that the Nebraska Jaycees coordinate a drive to put the K-12 school plan before the voters at the next general election.

European Newsmen Call Lincoln 'Most Typical City'

Thirty-three top journalists and news analysts from NATO countries left for El Paso, Tex., after a 3-day visit in which they described Lincoln the most "typical" American city they have visited thus far on their 30-day tour of the U.S.

A conference with Gov. Victor Anderson, a tour of the University of Nebraska School of Journalism, and a luncheon with the Executive Club of Lincoln highlighted the final days' activity.

Many of the newsmen felt Lincoln was the first stop on their tour where they saw how the typical American lives.

"Although Washington is the most beautiful city I've seen it did not represent typical American life as well as Lincoln," Maurice Haurez, journalist for the Le Peuple, Brussels, Belgium, said.

"Lincoln has the midwest color and the people are very kind and agreeable. They're always smiling," he said.

The main difference between America and Europe, Mr. Haurez explained, is that America is so large and has such wide streets.

Another newsman, Terje Ballsrud, news commentator and analyst for the Norwegian Journal of Commerce and Shipping in Oslo, said: "I received a very favorable impression of Lincoln Sunday when I visited a farm and had dinner."

Gilbert Carter of the London Daily Herald calls Lincoln the crossroads of the nation. "We've seen more of America in Lincoln than anywhere else."

Monday the newsmen fired questions at Gov. Victor Anderson. Questions on subjects ranging from farm price supports to tariffs, the recession to foreign aid were put to the governor.

Bringing Up Baby®

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

This is National Baby Week, and I can't think of a better way to celebrate this happy occasion than to take advantage of this special Gerber offer. For parents of lovely babies, everywhere, Gerber offers a delightful recording called "What is a Baby" ...narrated by Rosemary Clooney, charming TV star and mother of 3. It's an irresistible biography of your baby and all babies told with tenderness, humor and insight. On the other side of the record, Miss Clooney sings 2 favorite lullabies: "Close Your Eyes," and "All the Pretty Little Horses."

For your copy of this 7 inch 33⅓ Lp Columbia record of "What is a Baby," send 50¢ and 6 labels or boxtops to Gerber Baby Foods, Dept. NO90, Fremont, Michigan. Offer expires June 30, 1959.

National Baby Week or any week, you'll find Gerber Cereal Quads provide an easy way to offer your baby cereal variety. This handy 4-in-1 package contains small-size boxes of Rice Cereal, Barley, Oatmeal, and Mixed Cereal. Each has its own bland but distinctive flavor, especially suited to baby's unsophisticated palate.

When mixed with formula or milk, all four have the creamy-smooth texture that feels good. All Gerber Baby Cereals are vitamin-and-mineral enriched.

Pressing idea. If you have a sleeve board, you'll find it's much easier to iron baby's tiny garments on it. It's perfect for pressing little puffed sleeves and ruffled pretties.

2 Diaper do's that simplify and speed this task: (1) Fold at least a full day's supply of diapers at one time. Be surprised what a time-saver this is. (2) When you diaper baby on his bath table, anchor him with the safety strap. This leaves you free to use both hands . . . really speeds diapering.

'Hold Line' Basin Backers In Majority

Omaha (AP) — "Hold the line" advocates had top heavy numerical superiority Tuesday over those urging the Missouri Reservoir control committee to step up power production in the Missouri Basin.

Most of the speakers recommended that the present operating plan, which allocates stored water for irrigation, navigation, hydroelectric power, water supply, stream sanitation, recreation and fish and wildlife development be continued. The power advocates want allocations for navigation cut back to permit greater power production in the wintertime.

The hearing was conducted to give all interests in the basin a chance to present their views to the committee, which will meet in closed session Wednesday to work out the general criteria for operating Ft. Peck, Garrison, Ft. Randall and Gavins Point reservoirs during the coming year.

Several speakers emphasized that the support and tax money of the entire basin was needed to bring the program to its present stage, where some benefits are being realized and it would be wrong to yield to pressure from individual groups within the basin.

Lloyd Leonard of Kansas City, head of the Sioux City and New Orleans Barge Lines, and A. C. Ingersoll Jr., president of Federal Barge Lines, both asked that navigation, as an asset to the economy of the area, continue to receive consideration.

Morton Steinhart, Nebraska City, Neb., food processor declared that farmers and manufacturers are twice as far from the consuming markets of the nation in terms of dollar cost than they were 20 years ago. Barge transportation will cut these costs almost in half, he said.

National Fraternity Elects Dr. Andrews

Dr. Lyle V. Andrews of Chadron State Teachers College, extreme left, front row, was elected president of the grand council of Lambda Delta Lambda, national physical science fraternity, at the group's annual convention held at Chadron. Front row, from left: Dr. Andrews; Jack Murphy, Chadron State Teachers College, retiring national student president; Dr. W. G. Ingram, Wayne State Teachers College, treasurer; and Dr. Donald Fox, Kearney State Teachers College, retiring president of the grand council. Back row: Dr. John M. Burger, Emporia State Teachers College, retiring secretary; and Clarence Warner, Emporia State Teachers College, newly elected national student president. (Photo Special to The Star)

Dr. Reed Will Discuss Rural Development Plan

Future plans for Nebraska involving the Federal-State Rural Development program will be discussed at Lincoln and in Sherman County Wednesday and Thursday.

Dr. Harry J. Reed, Washington, D.C., Rural Development co-ordinator, will hold a series of meetings on the campus of the College of Agriculture here Wednesday.

On Thursday Dr. Reed, accompanied by personnel active in Rural Development work in the state, will tour the only rural development county in Nebraska at present—Sherman. Later, he will meet with county and community civic leaders in many fields at Loup City to discuss development of county resources.

Council Asking Expense Report In Power Case

Beatrice, Neb. — The Beatrice City Council passed a motion requesting the city attorney and her assistant, Warren Johnson of Lincoln, make a report on expenses incurred thus far in the Consumers Public Power District, Beatrice, Norris Rural Public Power District suit.

The council also moved that a discussion be held at a special meeting on May 5, on the advisability of continuing the hiring of additional legal counsel.

In the motion offered by Councilman Leslie Warren, Warren asked to have cleared up, whether money spent in the power squabble is coming from the city funds or from the board of public works funds.

Awarding Of Missile Base Work June 30

Washington (AP) — The Army said Tuesday that 4 contracts totaling about 18 million dollars for construction at the Air Force ballistic missile base near Cheyenne, Wyo., will be awarded by June 30.

Construction at the base by the Army engineers is expected to begin this summer.

The Francis E. Warren ICBM base projects, the Army said, are expected to employ a 500-man labor force by midsummer, with later peak employment of about 3,500. These workmen will be in addition to technical personnel employed by Air Force contractors in the installation of ICBM materials and equipment.

The Army Engineer Corps said surveys of the nearest labor markets—Cheyenne and Denver, which is about 100 miles south—indicated that an adequate construction force, including power equipment operators, can be recruited in those areas.

Boys Training School Commitments From Omaha Doubled By Dist. Judge

Omaha (AP) — District Judge James M. Patton said he has doubled the rate of commitments to the Boys Training School at Kearney since taking over the Juvenile Court in January.

Juvenile Court records show that in a little over 2 months, Judge Patton sent 10 convicted juvenile delinquents to the state institution. Previously, the committment rate averaged about 5 for the period from Omaha.

The judge said all the boys he has ordered to Kearney have been repeated offenders, chances on probation.

"I thought if I would clamp down a little bit they (Juvenile delinquents) would cease and desist. I figured some of these kids were trying me out. It was a bad try."

If he finds a boy guilty of delinquency once, the judge said, the boy might be granted probation. On occasion, even a second offender might be given another chance.

"But if they're up here 3 times, they go to Kearney," Patton declared. "I guess I subscribe to the old idea that somebody ought to be straightened out."

Study Of Plan Asked

Washington (AP)—Rep. Robert Harrison (R-Neb) said he was urging Rep. Poage (D-Texas) to call the House Agriculture Subcommittee on livestock and feed grains into session to study proposals for reopening the Omaha Alcohol Plant.

State Audio-Visual Assn. Meeting May 3

Researchers Isolate Chemical Of Fever

By John A. Barbour

Atlantic City, N.J. (AP) — Fever—the sign that your body is fighting infection—is caused by an elusive chemical that races through your system spreading the alarm to the brain.

Researchers reported Tuesday that the chemical had been isolated from the blood of sick persons.

It is produced by the white blood cells that mass to battle the infection, said Dr. W. Barry Wood Jr., vice president and professor at Johns Hopkins University.

The fever-causing chemical then spreads through the body and when it reaches the brain upsets the body's temperature control device in the hypothalmus a part of the brain.

The chemical is apparently exuded by the massing white cells as they gather at the source of infection, Dr. Wood told the American College of Physicians meeting here.

It isn't known whether fever has a function in fighting disease, Dr. Wood explained. It has some benefits in that it speeds up circulation, metabolism and the movement of cells.

Pair Enter Not Guilty Pleas In Church Breakin

Forrest Teeters of 3230 Vine and Kenneth Morrison of 1821 O pleaded innocent Monday in Lancaster County Court to burglary and felonious building entry charges.

Teeters, 38, and Morrison, 24, were charged with breakins at the First-Plymouth Congregational Church at 20th and D and Van Allen's Garage at 4144 So. 48th Sunday night. Police said they also admitted breaking into the 4732 Prescott and the home of Gus Pizza at 3319 Holdrege.

Nothing was reported stolen at any of the places entered, but an unsuccessful attempt to open a safe was made at the church. A preliminary hearing on the charges was set for May 10 and Judge Herbert A. Ronin set their appearance bonds at $5,000 each.

Improved

Rome (AP) — Doctors said the remaining part of Samuel Cardinal Stritch's right arm is healing rapidly and well. He underwent an amputation to foil a blood clot.

A few visitors allowed to see the 70-year-old archbishop of Chicago said he looked and felt fine.

Salt-Wahoo Chance Good —Weaver

Lincoln Star Special

Washington — Congressman Phil Weaver said he was "optimistic" about the possibilities of some favorable action on the Salt-Wahoo Watershed Assn. project following a meeting in Washington Tuesday between Association officials and Rep. Russel B. Mack of Wash.

Weaver arranged the meeting between former Gov. Robert Crosby, legal counsel for the Association; State Sen. Otto Liebers of Lincoln, Association chairman; John B. Quinn of Lincoln, public relations counsel for the National Resources Development Assn., and Mack, who is ranking Republican on the House flood control subcommittee.

Weaver said Mack has introduced a "cleaned-up" version of watershed development projects omitting those "singled-out by the President as not being acceptable to him."

Not Recession Approach

"We are not trying to sell this on the recession approach," Weaver said. "We are only concerned in making an investment now that will come back to the state and the nation many times over in years to come."

He said a plan has been developed to encourage both Republicans and Democrats to follow their party platform in connection with water development and flood control projects.

Nebraska's first district congressman said he plans to have further conferences with "congressmen from states which have good clean projects in the bill."

Weaver said he probably will make a trip to Lincoln "after May 15 to consolidate our force in that area."

Asparagus Farms 'Not So Bad'—Board

The County Board Tuesday afternoon toured 2 asparagus farms west of Lincoln and Board Chairman Russell Brehm reported sanitary conditions were not as bad as a City-County Health Department report had indicated.

Checked were the farms of John Boyd on West A and R. J. Lilly at 701 So. Burlington Ave. A health department report had said sanitary conditions for 5 itinerant families at the Boyd farm (about 19 persons) and 8 families at the Lilly farm (about 40 persons) were unsatisfactory and were a potential hazard to the community.

The workers at the Boyd farm are housed in a large farm house and those at the Lilly farm in several one-story sheds, but no criticism of the housing was made. But the report did say better toilet, garbage and water facilities should be provided.

Brehm said he was assured by the operators of the 2 farms that they will work with the health department to correct the situation.

The families involved arrived in Lincoln in March from Texas and are of Mexican descent. They are expected to leave in mid-June when through working here.

Marshall Potter Pleads Guilty To 'Fondling Minor'

Marshall Potter of 2928 E pleaded guilty Tuesday in Lancaster District Court to a "fondling a minor" charge and was sentenced to 5 months in jail by Judge Harry A. Spencer.

The County Attorney's office dismissed a charge of statutory rape against Potter, 31. He had previously pleaded innocent to both charges.

Potter was charged in connection with his alleged actions with a 12-year-old Lincoln girl Apr. 13, 1957.

Policeman Gets $4,500 Damages

Police Officer Merl M. Hesser of 228 No. 16th was awarded $4,500 damages by a Lancaster District Court jury in his suit against a Seward youth and his father.

Hesser alleged he was injured Sept. 21, 1956, when the police motorcycle he was operating en route to an emergency call was in collision with a car driven by Dwaine R. Pekarek and owned by the youth's father, William. The mishap occurred at 10th and N. Hesser had asked $22,950.

Stocks, Earnings Sharply Lower

New York (AP) — The stock market declined for the second straight day Tuesday amid a rash of sharply lower earnings.

Industrials set the lower tone with losses ranging from fgractions to a point or so in key issues. Wide scattering of small gains in most divisions demonstrated the selective nature of trading.

Volume subsided for the second day. Turnover amounted to 2,190,000 shares in Friday's advance.

Why does the market go down on bad earnings this week when it took the same news in stride last week?

Wall Street said there was a difference because a number of companies reporting Tuesday absorbed bigger drops than expected.

Brokers also said the market had reached an area in the averages where resistance was encountered previously. Thus, some were advising customers to stop, look and listen before making major commitments

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 80 cents to $165.80, with industrials off $1.70, rails off 40 cents and utilities up 10 cents.

Of 1,184 stocks traded, 589 declined, 317 advanced and 278 were unchanged. There were 65 new 1958 highs and 21 lows.

The American Stock Exchange was lower on volume of 600,000 shares compared with Monday's 710,000 shares.

BOND MARKET

New York (AP) — U.S. government bonds rallied on light demand Tuesday for their first advance in a week. Gains extended to more than half a point in some recent maturities.

Corporates closed exactly even or balanced in dull trading. Rails and industrials eased; utilities were firm, investment quality issues and foreign dollar bonds edged higher. Both top grade investment issues and foreign liens set new highs for the year.

Government market experts attributed Monday's sharp losses to a general exodus on the part of stock market speculators who had flocked to the treasury market during the recent boom.

Corporate trading dropped to $5,270,000 par value on the big board from $5,610,000 Monday.

Wheat Contracts Lead Grain Mart

Chicago (AP) —The May wheat contract, with a gain of 1⅝ cents a bushel, was the liveliest grain future in a rather slow day on the board of trade.

No other contract shifted as much as cent from the previous closes and most stayed within minor fractions as major outside influences were lacking.

There was a moderate amount of export business in wheat which undoubtedly caused some buying of the May delivery but an unusually large volume of open interest in the contract probably sparked most of the activity.

At the start of trading, the open interest was understood to be about 28 million bushels, about twice the normal volume with the expiration date for dealing in the contract less than a month away.

Some traders have said this means, of course, that unless the short interests are prepared to deliver large amounts of the grain after May 20, the expiration date, they must buy amounts at least approximately equal to their commitments.

Adding to concern among the shorts about their position was a report that additional quantitites of already limited amounts of the grain in Chicago were shipped out Tuesday.

It has been known for some time that cash supplies of wheat in Chicago had become rather tight and that any traders caught with delivery commitments would have to scramble hard to fill them, probably from outside markets.

At the close, wheat was 1⅝ cents a bushel higher to ⅝ lower, corn unchanged to ½ higher, oats ⅜ lower to ⅝ higher, rye unchanged to 1 cent higher soybeans ¼-⅞ higher, and lard 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower.

The wheat export sales totaled about 2¾ million bushels to Formosa and Yugoslavia.

Soybeans were firm on a report that France was expected to buy about 750,000 bushels Tuesday or Wednesday.

The Commodity Stabilization Service has reported no bids accepted for corn exports since last week and some dealers were of the opinion the government may already have abandoned this market preparatory to handing it over to commercial dealers next Monday. It announced several days ago it would withdraw in favor of an export subsidy program through which all such sales after May 5 will be hendled on the open market.

The government long has been selling abroad large amounts of surplus corn taken in default of loan payment under the price support program.

45,000 Notices In Mail For Collection Of Controversial New Vehicle Tax

By Virgil Falloon

Some 45,000 city vehicle tax notices went into the mails Tuesday, according to City Co-ordinator James Mallon.

The tax, estimated to bring in $225,000 to $230,000 this year, is to be used exclusively for street improvements and will help finance the proposed 11-year, $16.6 million street improvement program.

Considerable controversy has raged around the new tax, which becomes due and payable May 1, since the passage of the revenue measure by the Council last March 3.

Suit Pending

The referendum petition move, declared insufficient by the Council, is currently pending before the District Court for a temporary restraining order and injunction against the city vehicle tax.

However, a city official said the current status of the case would have no immediate effect on the tax notices or collections. The city must answer the suit by June 2.

The tax scale ranges from $1 for 2-wheel trailers to $10 for trucks carrying 4 tons or more with passenger cars pegged at $5 annually.

The new tax, which is due May 1, carries an interest rate of 1% for each month unpaid and a 5% penalty for failure to pay within 6 months.

City officials said each owner would receive a statement by mail this week with a return envelope for payment by mail.

Cashier On Duty

Although mail payment is being encouraged, a temporary cashier's cage has been set up in the City Hall lobby to receive payments.

No sticker or plate will be issued or required. City officials have found this method to be a nuisance to the vehicle owner and also costly from the standpoint of policing.

The street improvement levy is being handled in the same manner as other taxes. The billing, recording of payments and policing can all be handled by the city's machine billing and accounting system at a much lower cost, they said.

To reduce postage and other administrative costs to a minimum, no receipt will be mailed back unless requested so that all possible money can go for street improvements.

Safeguards Listed

But, officials point out that safeguards are provided to account for each individual payment, including both an internal city audit and an independent audit by certified public accountants annually.

The tax billing is on the basis of each vehicle registration number in the city. No additional tax will be levied on license transfers, but new registrations will be billed during the year.

The 11-year program anticipates $263,000 annually from the vehicle levy. It is estimated the increased vehicle registrations may hit that average during the period, but first-year collections are estimated at $230,000.

Mallon said the cost of preparing the tax notices by machine equipment was less than the cost of postage and envelopes used in mailing.

The ordinance limits administrative costs to not more than 2% of the tax collected.

Starkweather Defense List Of Witnesses Seen Soon

Defense attorneys for mass killer Charles Starkweather are expected to file a list within the next few days of defense witnesses whose expenses will be paid by the state.

This step, required by state law, is the next in preparation for the start of Starkweather's trial Monday on 2 murder charges. Defense attorneys T. Clement Gaughan and William F. Matschullat have said they believe the trial will last at least 3 weeks."

Gaughan and Matschullat, who were court-appointed to defend Starkweather, have indicated they hope to call about 30 witnesses. Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele has listed more than 60 witnesses although not all are expected to be called to testify.

Week To Pick Jury

Gaughan said he expects the first week of the trial will be needed to select a jury. District Judge Harry A. Spencer Tuesday granted a defense request for a copy of the list of 200 prospective jurors called for the jury term.

Scheele will also receive a jury list. Gaughan and Matschullat had requested the list to help cut down the time in eliminating jurors.

Starkweather has reportedly signed a statement admitting being involved in 10 murders in Lincoln and Bennet and 1 near Douglas, Wyo. He is specifically charged in the fatal shooting of 17-year-old Robert Jensen of Bennet Jan. 27.

The 19-year-old redhead will be tried on charges of first degree murder and murder while in the perpetration of a robbery, either of which may be punished by death upon conviction.

Gaughan and Matschullat are almost sure to base their defense on a contention of insanity although, as previously reported, Starkweather is said to be balking at this. It is considered certain, however, that Gaughan and Matschullat will enter an innocent by reason of insanity plea (an innocent plea has already been entered) for Starkweather, probably on Monday.

Starkweather is still being held at the State Penitentiary for safekeeping. The County Board Tuesday gave Co. Sheriff Merle Karnopp permission to hire 4 off-duty police officers to bolster his staff of deputies to guard Starkweather during the trial. A total of about 30 lawmen are expected to be used in various capacities in the County Courthouse during the trial to guard Starkweather and keep order.
